Chapter 1  Introduction

Several Wetherington families live in the Craven County, NC area. This work focuses on the Wetheringtons of Tuscarora, NC in the 9th township of Craven County and nearby Clarks, NC in the 8th township.

The Wetheringtons and allied families have been in the Craven County area from the early 1730’s to the current date. This work concentrates on the ancestors of Abner B. Wetherington of Tuscarora and presents additional information on many of the other relations of the Solomon Wetherington line. Several related families in Tuscarora have Wetherington connections by marriage and are included in this writing. The Bratcher, Eubanks, Moore, Register, and Stewart families, among others, have multiple connections to the Wetherington families of Tuscarora.

The Wetheringtons of Tuscarora have long been associated with the Free Will Baptist Church there. Prior to the establishment of the Gethsemane Free Will Baptist church in 1890, the earlier Liberty Meeting House was located on the site of the Gethsemane church cemetery. As early as 1829, the Liberty Meeting House was used by both the Baptists and Methodists of the area until these congregations built new separate new church buildings about 1890. More information on the church is included in Chapter 23.

Many family members are buried at locations throughout the area, the older, primary cemeteries being the Gethsemane Free Will Baptist Church cemetery, the nearby Stewart cemetery, and the Solomon Wetherington cemetery on nearby Rollover Creek. Other cemeteries of the area include the John Moore family cemetery, the Bogey-Richardson cemetery, and the Bratcher cemetery (relocated in the 1970’s and incorporated into the Gethsemane cemetery).

The farming community of Tuscarora, North Carolina once supported a post office, railroad freight depot, and several general stores. A history of Tuscarora and map reconstruction circa 1925 is included in Chapter 25.

From about 1830, many articles appear in local newspapers, some mentioning family members, local events and numerous obituaries. Some of these items are listed in the various chapters.

Numerous variations on the surname spelling of Wetherington exist in Craven area records. Generally, the name is most commonly spelled Witherington prior to 1850 and the Tuscarora line adopted the spelling as Wetherington about 1850. Some Wethington, Witherington, Worthington, and Weatherington families currently reside in other areas of Craven, Lenoir, and Pitt County. Various spellings have been used and the same person may have different spellings of the surname over the years in the area records. This researcher did not attempt to determine the original or correct spelling of the surname for a person or family, but acknowledges the many variations of the surname. The most common spelling for the Tuscarora families is Wetherington, however it was noted that of kin relocating in the 1850’s to Tennessee, the surname spelling Witherington was retained.

Both actual dates and interpolated dates reported in this work. Interpolated dates from census enumerations, undocumented marriages, etc. are generally reported in parentheses. Specific dates are from gravestones, death certificates, marriage records, obituaries and other recorded, published more specific date sources are reported without parentheses.
Chapter 2  The Colonial Wetheringtons

The earliest established Tuscaora Wetherington ancestor is Robert Widdrington of Calvert County Maryland. His will of 1722 names children John, Solomon, Dorcas, Mary, Elizabeth and a step-son, Benjamin Rice. This Wetherington line is generally accepted but not proven as likely migrating from the parish of Widdrington in Northumberland, England. It is unproven which family progenitor(s) may have migrated from the British Isles to the colonies in the 17th century.

The following 1866 map of the Widdrington area displays the location of the manor or castle and the churches.¹

The village and area about Widdrington, in Northumberland, on the eastern coast of England.
The Widdrington castle no longer extant, being destroyed at an unknown date. A print of the castle, dated 1728 appeared in an 1855 publication.

WIDDINGTON is a parochial chapelry situated between the parishes of Woodhorn and Warkworth, having the sea for its eastern and Ulgham chapelry for its western boundary. It comprises the three small villages of Widdrington, Dunridge, and Linton, whose united area is 4,530 acres, and rateable value £4,156 17s. The population in 1801, was 446; in 1811, 370; in 1821, 388; in 1831, 395; in 1841, 447; and in 1851, 429 souls. It possesses a rich, strong, clayey soil, suitable both for pasturage and tillage, and Lord Vernon is the proprietor of the whole chapelry, with the exception of the Constablewick of Linton, which is the property of Mrs. Askew. Widdrington was formerly included in the parish of Woodhorn, but, in 1768, it was admitted to the enjoyment of separate and distinct parochial privileges, This manor was formerly the property of a family which bore the local name, Gerard de Widdrington possessing it in the reign of Edward III; and we find various members of this family stand conspicuous in the list of sheriffs of the county. Sir William Widdrington, a most zealous royalist, was created Lord Widdrington by Charles I, in 1643, and was subsequently slain at Wigan, in 1651. William, the third Lord Widdrington, having taken part with the Earl of Derwentwater, suffered attainder in 1715, when his real and personal estate, amounting to £100,000, was sold for public use, the purchaser being Sir George Revel, from whom it descended by heiresses to Viscount Bulkeley, and subsequently to the present proprietors."

[From History, Topography, and Directory of Northumberland, Whellan, 1855].
Researcher Barry Wetherington has published information on the Internet on a Samuel Widdrington believed to be the earliest unknown colonial Wetherington ancestor. Reportedly, Samuel was the father of Robert Wetherington of Maryland. Robert is the first Wetherington in our lineage well documented in colonial America. Robert Wetherington’s (c. 1681 – 1722) will was recorded in Calvert County, Maryland. Robert’s two sons, Solomon Witherington (1703 – 1766) and John Witherington are the earliest known Craven area Wetheringtons, arriving in the Bay River area of now Pamlico County on or before 1730.

John Witherington, brother of Solomon (1703)-1766 first appears in area records in 1730, witnessing a deed recorded in Beaufort County from John Martin to Benjamin Rice along with other witnesses William Carruthers Francis Delamar and Benjamin Rice.

In 1733, John Witherenton and Frances Delamar witnessed a deed from Daniel Shine to William Carruthers for 306 acres of the south side of Bay River, part of the tract patented by Neal O’Neale in 1722.

Also in 1733, William Carruthers sold Solomon Witherenton a tract of 150 acres on the south side of the Bay River. Recorded in Beaufort County, this area later became part of Pamlico County.

In December of 1736, Solomon Witherenton sold John Martin a tract of 150 acres on the south side of the Bay River, witnessed by Francis Delamar and Benjamin Rice. This land was likely the same tract purchased by Solomon earlier in 1733.

From about 1730 to 1736, John and Solomon Wetherington were living in the area on the south side of the Bay River, land now included in Pamlico County formed in 1872 from parts of Craven and Beaufort Counties.
Sometime after 1736 and before 1745 it appears that John and Solomon Wetherington migrated to the Stoney Town Creek and Briery Run area of Craven County on the north side of the Neuse River. This area later became part of Lenoir (Dobbs) County and is also known as Contentea Neck.

In 1745 Francis Stringer sold 100 acres to Solomon Wetherington on Tomico [?] Branch.

Also in 1745 Simon Bright sold John Wetherington 160 acres in Craven County on the North side of the Neuse River and the north side of Briery Branch.

Unfortunately, most early records of Lenoir County perished in a courthouse fire. Only some deed indexes remain and some early bible records. A few land grants survive in the state archives and some deeds recorded in Craven County name Lenoir county Wetheringtons.

Many internet sources name Thomas Wetherington, the son of Solomon, as being the father of Solomon Wetherington (1761-1840) however, no specific sources have been identified by this researcher and no citations are offered to verify or establish this claim.

Solomon Wetherington’s will of 1766 recorded in Craven County names his wife Ann, and children, Robert, Thomas, Mary, and Elizabeth Wetherington. An inventory of his estate also survives in Craven County records.
In the name of God amen I Solomon Wetherington of Craven County being sick and weak of body but of perfect understanding and desire to make my will and testament in manner and form as follows. Chapter 3 Early Tuscarora Area Wetheringtons

Several versions of the origins of early Tuscarora Wetheringtons exist.

One of the more popular published accounts reports four Wetherington brothers came to North Carolina from Northumberland, England in 1732. The four brothers, Solomon, William, Thomas, and James, all bachelors, started homesteads along a small creek in Craven County in the area now known as Tuscarora. The creek allegedly owns its name to the marital status of the brothers, becoming Bachelor Creek. Alas, this charming, folksy tale is unfortunately a family myth.¹

More recently, other researchers have located Solomon’s father, Robert Wetherington (1682 – 1722) recording a will in Calvert County, Maryland.² The will names children: Solomon, John, Mary, Elizabeth, and Dorcas and stepbrother, Benjamin Rice. The migration of John and Solomon from Maryland to the Bay River area of North Carolina occurred between 1722 and 1730. About 1745 John and Solomon Wetherington appear in recorded deeds in the Stoney Town Creek area of Craven County (now Lenoir County). Researchers name this Solomon (b. 1703 or 1704) as the father of Thomas Wetherington (1730 – 1774).³ Thomas Wetherington resided in Dobbs County, reportedly married a daughter of Abraham Taylor and had 7 children. These children were: ⁴

1. William Wetherington 1759 – 1844 m. Susannah Coward
2. Solomon Wetherington 1761 – 1840 m. Mary Moore
3. James Wetherington (1763-) m. dau of Peter Yates
4. Thomas Wetherington (1765-) m. Elizabeth Taylor
5. Joseph Wetherington (1767-) m. Nancy Pritchard
6. Sarah Wetherington (1769 -) m. Abraham Taylor
7. Frederick Wetherington

The only fact in the family tale is the group of brothers. The family legend has the brothers arriving about 1732 and the Wetherington brothers were actually born in Dobbs County in about 1759-1770.

A colonial land grant for Solomon Wetherington (b. 1703) exists, but the property is listed on the Neuse River, near Stoney Town Creek in present day Lenoir County, not Bachelor Creek in Tuscarora. The Wetherington brothers purchased land on Bachelor Creek about 1790-1800, and a large patent for 640 acres was granted in the Bachelor Creek area to Abraham Taylor, Solomon’s brother-in-law.⁵

Another family tale of land grants from the king also proves untrue; the record reveals the elder Wetherington brothers purchased grants from the Crown near Kinston and later the State of North Carolina, but the bulk of their recorded transactions were lands purchased from private landowners. There are no colonial land grants to Wetheringtons for property in the Bachelor Creek area. The only proven significant grants are to Abraham Taylor, brother-in-law to Solomon Wetherington.

The names of Solomon, William, Thomas, and James Wetherington are also listed in the 1790 Craven and Lenoir county census as heads of families. This listing supports the brothers being born about 1759 – 1767. In the 1800 Craven county census, these four names appear again, all men being listed as less than 45 years of age. Also a brother, Joseph Wetherington, is listed in Craven County between 1800 and 1840.

The 1790 census lists James Wetherington, Andrew Richardson, and Alexander Bogey. Andrew Richardson and Alexander Bogey are well-documented landowners in the Tuscarora area, so it appears James was established in the Bachelor Creek area by 1790. Also in 1793 James sold land in the area to Andrew Richardson.

Colonial North Carolina land grants mention Bachelor Creek by name in a 1754 grant to Richard Graves. The name Bachelor Creek also appears on the Moseley map of 1733. Another spelling, Batchelder’s Creek, likely derives from the Swiss Palatine settlers prior to 1733 and is the most widely accepted source of the creek’s name and not the brother’s marital status. The name Tuscarora does not appear in early Crown land grants (1639 – 1775). The North Carolina Gazetteer lists Tuscarora as being settled about 1825, but the Bachelor Creek area was apparently well settled by the 1790s. The name Tuscarora does not appear to be in common usage until the advent of the North Carolina and Atlantic railroad in the late 1850s. The creek in Tuscarora currently called Rollover Creek joins Bachelor Creek to the southeast of the Gethsemane Free Will Baptist Church. This watercourse was called Limbo Branch in the early 1800s and the name Rollover does not appear in county records until 1858. The name Rollver comes from a curve in the stream where the creek “rolls over” onto itself. Early Wetherington deeds (circa 1800) also mention a Tomahawk Branch, Deep Branch, Ash Branch, Moore’s Branch, Beaver Dam Branch, and a Limbo Bridge.

Other Wetherington deed transactions in Craven County prior to 1775 also include Robert in 1768, and Thomas in 1770.

Land transactions in Dobbs County (Lenoir) name Solomon, Robert, John, and Nathan Wetherington prior to 1775. Solomon Wetherington 1761- 1840 appears to have been raised in Dobbs County. In 1795 Solomon purchased land from John West on the south side of the Neuse River and east side of Moseley Creek (Land now in Craven County and north of Dover, NC). Solomon subsequently sold land to Levi West in 1796 in the same area, east of Moseley’s Creek and west of the Snake Hole Branch, lands also in Craven Township No. 3, near Dover, NC.
The first record of Solomon Wetherington in Bachelor Creek was recorded a deed to Solomon from Abraham Taylor in 1796 and listed as 98 acres of land on both sides of Bachelor Creek, beginning at Benjamin Fordham’s 1st line where it crosses Bryery Branch. The land was purchased for £98 and deed witnessed by Lewis Fonville and David Hudler. By 1800-1810, there were numerous deeds for Bachelor Creek land naming Solomon Wetherington.

Solomon’s sister, Sarah, married Abraham Taylor in 1787 in Craven County. These Taylors also resided in Tuscarora in 1790 along with several other Taylor relations.

The current best fit of information yields the following proposed family tree:

![Family Tree Diagram]

The elder Solomon Wetherington was born in Maryland about 1703, moved to the Bay River area about 1730 and later to the Contentnea Neck area about 1745. He was the father of 4 known children and the grandfather of Solomon Wetherington 1761-1840.

Thomas Wetherington appears to have raised his family in the area of Stoney Town (Stoneyton) Creek, land now in Lenoir County on the west side of the Neuse.
Deed transactions by Thomas’ son, Solomon, in the 1780’s were for land on both sides of the Neuse River, including the Moseley Creek and Snake Hole Branch area.

Solomon’s siblings, James, Sarah, and Thomas migrated to the Tuscarora area about 1780-1790. About 1796 Solomon and family migrated to the Tuscarora area. Solomon’s brothers, William and Joseph, joined the other siblings and established homes in the Tuscarora area.

Some Internet family trees also name a sixth son, Frederick Wetherington, but this name does not appear in any known early Craven records.

About 1800 the Wetherington brothers, Solomon, Joseph, James, William, Thomas and sister, Sarah Wetherington Taylor are living in the area of Tuscarora. From this point there is a wealth of data in Craven County records on these Wetherington families and their relations.
Chapter 4  Solomon Wetherington 1761 – 1840

Solomon Wetherington was born in 1761 in the Dobbs County, NC five miles from Kingston (now Kinston in Lenoir County).¹,²,³

The Internet is a copious source of genealogical information on Solomon, but most of the information is undocumented and equivocal. Records in Craven County conflict with much of the Internet information and the loss of many early Lenoir County records leaves many reported claims unproven. This researcher gives precedence to the county records over undocumented Internet sources.

Recent researchers report Solomon as the son of Thomas Wetherington, and the grandson of Solomon Wetherington (1703-1766). Other older sources from circa 1920 report Solomon as the son of Richard Wetherington.⁴ A Richard Whetenton and son, Solomon, appears in Johnston County, NC records but this Solomon was a separate entity. Records show our Solomon was born in Dobbs County, married Mary Moore, and moved to the Moseley Creek area on the Lenoir – Craven County line prior to the 1790 census. About 1796 Solomon and family relocated to Bachelor Creek in Tuscarora along with Solomon’s brothers and families.

Solomon Wetherington’s service in the Revolution is well documented.⁵ A 1780 Dobbs County Militia roster includes Solomon Witherington in Captain Harvey’s company.⁶ Pension records have Private Solomon Wetherington serving several enlistments as a private soldier.⁷ He was awarded a pension at the age of 73 for his service in the Revolution.⁸ A Solomon Wetherington is listed in a 1788 voter list of Dobbs County.⁹ Other Dobbs County records have a Solomon Wetherington named in deeds from 1784 – 1798.¹⁰

See Chapter 23 Revolutionary and Civil War Wetheringtons

Solomon Wetherington married Mary Moore c. 1766 – 1822 in 1782.¹¹ Mary Moore (aka O’Moore) was the daughter of Richard Moore of Contentnea Creek, an area now in Lenoir and Greene County.¹²,¹³ Deed transactions also indicate Solomon conferring property in the Wheat Swamp area of northern Lenoir County.¹⁴ It is not known when Solomon and Mary Wetherington moved to the Craven County area, however by 1790, Solomon Whittington is listed the Craven County census in the Moseley creek area along with one male less than 16 years of age and four females.¹⁵ This listing is consistent with a wife and the birth dates of their first four children. Deed transactions also indicate Solomon and Mary Wetherington were likely living in western part of Craven County, north of Dover in the Moseley Creek area about 1790.¹⁶ Solomon purchased land in the Bachelor Creek area first in 1796, and by 1805 Solomon appears well established in the Bachelor Creek area. There are several deeds for Solomon and his brothers in the Bachelor Creek area. Solomon Wetherington is also listed in the 1800¹⁷, 1820¹⁸, 1830¹⁹ and 1840²⁰ Craven County census. During the period of 1800-1840, Solomon and his brothers, James, Joseph, Thomas, and William all lived in the Bachelor Creek area in Craven County, NC.

In 1820, Solomon conveyed property on Bachelor Creek to two sons William and Thomas via a gift deed:

Solomon Wetherington to William & Thomas Wetherington 1820
Craven Deed Book 41 Page 491 (GIFT DEED)

Solomon “giveth unto” William and Thomas land on the west side of Bachelor Creek beginning at McCubbins patent... To Smith’s Pond... 50 acres apiece. Witnessed by Gideon and Will(iam) Wetherington. Proved by the grantor, March Term 1820.

In 1828, Solomon conveyed his property on Limbo Branch (now known as Rollover Creek) to two sons, James and Solomon, Jr. via a gift deed:

Solomon Wetherington to James Wetherington & Solomon Wetherington 1828
Craven County Deed Book 46 Page 206 (GIFT DEED)

For $2.00 land on both sides of Bachelor Creek in the fork of Limbo Branch where Limbo enters pocosin. To John H. Richardson’s line... From Hudler’s Pond... to Stanley’s line... Reserved a life estate for myself and wife Susan of house and plantation. Witnessed by Mary Civils and Jeremiah Heath. Proved Feb Term 1829 by the grantor.

Four of Solomon’s sons received land directly from their father as gift deeds. However there are no records of any direct conveyances to sons Jesse, Joseph, Richard, or Jeremiah.

Mary Moore Wetherington died in 1822 and was buried in the family graveyard in Tuscarora. Solomon married Susannah Davis on September 20, 1823 in Craven County. Most researchers report no children by this marriage.

The issue of Solomon Wetherington is problematic, as his will of 1840 does not directly name his heirs. One source of confusion is the Church of Latter Day Saints’ record reporting 17 heirs. Two of the LDS reported heirs are proven incorrect by other county records therefore the total of 17 is in error. An often-repeated tale of LDS records saving the list of heirs before the estate papers were lost appears to be a fabrication. Although three receipts may have been lost from the estate file, the summary of the estate dispersement clearly indicates 13 heirs, not the 17 heirs common listed in many accounts.

One argument for the heir count discrepancy is the possible death of the heirs prior to Solomon’s death or settlement, but this supposition is not valid as all of the potential heirs were alive for several years after the death of Solomon Wetherington.

It also appears that the younger Wetherington siblings associated with 2nd wife, Susannah Davis, and her will of 1840 reveals names of several of the younger siblings, including daughter Nancy which brings the known heir count to eleven.
An unmarried Mary Wetherington lived with Solomon Wetherington for 20 years from 1850 to 1870 and is most likely the 12th heir.

Reportedly, the youngest daughter and 13th heir, Susan Wetherington, is not named directly but she does appear in the household of Solomon Wetherington, Jr. in the 1840 census as a widow with a male child, her son Thomas Outlaw.

This leaves two widely reported children of Solomon Wetherington as suspect: Jeremiah Wetherington and Lovicy Wetherington. Reported as children by numerous researchers, no records have been found in Craven County proving or disproving these persons as issue of Solomon Wetherington.

The fact remains at this time all of the proven children and reported children were alive at the dispersalment of the estate. Therefore it is most likely there were only thirteen true heirs (children) to Solomon Wetherington’s estate.

The children of Solomon Wetherington and Mary Moore: 26, 27, 28, 29

Known by their estate receipts of 1843 (1–10).

1. Sarah Wetherington (1783 – after 1850) Sarah married Alexander Taylor (1776- after 1850) in 1803 in Craven County. 30 Alexander is listed in the 1840 Craven census 31 and the 1850 census lists Alexander Taylor along with Sarah and a possible grandson, Isaac Taylor, age 21. 32

   The children of Alexander Taylor and Sarah Wetherington: 33
   a. Isaac Taylor (1803-)
   b. James Taylor (1804-) m. Sally Jones
   c. Jane Taylor (1805-) m. Arnold Watson

Davis in 1812 in Craven County. 34 Lydia (b.1776-9) was the daughter of Lawson Davis (1753-) and Dorcas Adams. 35 Lydia’s brother was Lawson Wesley Davis, also a Tuscarora resident. 36 Jesse and Lydia appear in the 1820 Craven census 37, the 1830 Carteret census 38, and the 1840, 1850 and 1860 Craven County censuses. 39, 40, 41

   Jesse Wetherington and Lydia Davis had four known children: 42
   a. Erasmus Samuel Wetherington 1813 – 1893 married Marina 43
b. Lawson Davis Wetherington (1820- after 1880) married Dove Littleton

c. Beneta Davis Wetherington 1820-1903 married John Stewart

d. Clement Lemuel Wetherington 1824-1906 married Julia A. White

See Chapter 7, Jesse Wetherington

3. Hannah Wetherington (c. 1785- after 1842) married a Woolard. Hannah Woolard received a share of Solomon Wetherington’s estate in 1842 and an heir receipt is in the estate file. Hannah’s possible younger sister, Susan, later married a Carney (Canney) Woolard, but the relationship of Carney to Hannah’s husband, if any, is unknown. Hannah does not appear in any other Craven records.

4. Richard Wetherington (1790 - after 1850) married Nancy Carroll on June 6, 1813 in Craven County. Nancy Caroll is also listed in some genealogies as Nancy Carol Lamotte or Lanette. There may have been a previous marriage for Nancy prior to Richard Wetherington. Richard does not appear in the Craven census for 1820 or 1830. The 1840 Stokes County, NC census lists Richard Wetherington, age 40-50, a son, age 16-20, and 4 females in the household. The 1850 Davidson County, NC census lists Richard age 60, Nancy age 54, and a Mary E. Wetherington, age 28.

5. William Henry Wetherington (1795- after 1860) married Elizabeth (Betsey) Moore in 1822 in Craven County and lived in the Tuscarora area. A receipt for William’s share of Solomon’s estate survives. William Wetherington appears in the 1840, 1850, and 1860 Craven census. The children of William Wetherington and Elizabeth Moore were:

   a. Riley Wetherington 1829 - 1863 m. Mary Ann Taylor
   b. Hannisville (Hansey) Wetherington (1823-) m. Isaac Harrison
   c. Robert Wetherington (1842 –)

6. Anna Wetherington (1797- after 1860) married John Taylor on January 21, 1820 in Craven County. John Taylor died before 1850. Anna also received a share of Solomon’s estate. John and Anna appear in the 1840 and 1850 Craven census. Anna is listed as an apparent widow in the 1860 Craven census.

   The children of Anna Wetherington and John Taylor were:

   a. Elizabeth Taylor (1821-1824)
   b. William Taylor (before 1825)
   c. Ivey Taylor (1825 –)
   d. Frederick Taylor (1827 –) possibly married Penelope Woolard

   f. Solomon Taylor (1825-1830)
   g. Nancy Taylor (1825-1830)
h. Josiah Taylor (1831 –) m. 1st Mary Stewart Moore 63, 2nd Clara Ann Bratcher 64
i. Mary Ann Taylor (1839 -) married Riley Wetherington 65

7. Thomas Wetherington (1798-after 1870) married (1st) Susanna Davis in 1820 in Craven County66 and married (2nd) Keziah Tyson (1804- after 1860) on November 12, 1828 in Craven County.67 Thomas does not appear in the 1830 or 1840 Craven census, but his son, Absolum appears in the 1841 Craven school census.68 Thomas and Keziah Wetherington moved to Gibson County, TN prior to 1850 and they appear in the 1850 and 1860 Gibson County census along with their children.69,70 A Thomas Wetherington appears in the 1870 Marion County, Oregon census as age 72, born in NC.71

The child of Thomas Wetherington and Susanna Davis:

a. Ira Witherington (1827 -)

The children of Thomas Wieherington and Keziah Tyson were: 72,73
b. Absolum Wetherington (1829-) m. Harriet Glisson74
c. Henry T. Witherington (1831 -) m. Ellender
d. Julia Ann Witherington (1835-) born in TN.

8. Joseph Wetherington (1802 - after 1842) married Mary Ann Fooks (Fewkes) in 1831 in Craven County.75 He does not appear in the 1830, 1840, 1850, or 1860 Craven censuses. Joseph received a share of his father’s estate. Joseph appears only the estate record of Solomon Wetherington and the marriage bonds of Craven county.

9. Solomon Wetherington, Jr. 1804-1880 married (1st) Rachel Matthews 1798-1853 in 1832 in Lenoir County76 after Rachel’s death in 1853 77,78, he married (2nd) Harriet Ipock Avery (aka Averitt) in 1854 in Craven County.79 Solomon died in 1880 from dropsy 80,81 and was buried in the family cemetery in Tuscarora.82

The children of Solomon, Jr and Rachel Matthews were: 83

b. Mary Elizabeth Wetherington 1835 – 1917 m. James Harriett.85
d. Holland Ann Wetherington 1840 – 1882 never married.87

Rachel Matthews died in 1853 in Craven County and was buried in the family graveyard at Tuscarora. 88,89 Solomon, Jr. married (2nd) Harriet Ipock Avery (Averett) widow of Stephen Averitt in 1854 in Craven County.90 Craven County Court minutes record Clement L. Wetherington was appointed the guardian for William John and Charles Ann Averitt.91 The children from her 1st marriage also lived in the home in Tuscarora, daughter Charlie (aka Challey, Charlene) and son, William J. Averitt. Harriet Wetherington died in 1884 and was buried in a family cemetery at Oak Forest on Asbury Road in Craven County with her 1st husband, Stephen Averitt, and son, William J. Averitt (1840) – 1861.

The children of Solomon, Jr. and Harriet Ipock Averitt were:

e. Oliver Hazard Perry Wetherington 1860-1919 m. Nannie Daugherty.
f. Henry Clay Wetherington 1858 – 1859

h. Nannie Caroline Wetherington 1855- 1935 m. 1st John G. Smith 1839-1889,2nd Jesse Atkinson 1852-1918

See Chapter 9, Solomon Wetherington, Jr.

10. James Wetherington (1805- after 1850) James Wetherington is listed in the 1840 Craven census with an apparent wife and 3 young males and 1 young female. James and Nancy Wetherington 1803 – 1879 moved to Gibson County, TN sometime after 1840. A letter from James and Nancy dated 1850 in Gibson County, TN to family in Craven County also survives. There is also a James R. Wetherington (1805-1843) married to a Nancy Keen that is sometimes attributed to the son of Solomon, however, a personal letter to Jeremiah Heath in 1850 from James and Nancy in Gibson Co, TN appears to settle the issue with James' migration to Tennessee.

The children (all born in NC) of James and Nancy Wetherington were:

a. Alexander Witherington (1836-)
b. Stephen Witherington 1837-1929 m. Elizabeth
c. Ann Witherington (1839-)
d. Daniel Witherington 1840-1819 m. Julia

11. Nancy Wetherington (1810- after 1880) married Lemuel Davis, the son of Clement L. Davis and Dorcas Wetherington, in 1835 in Craven County. Lemuel Davis died about 1843 and his estate was recorded in Craven County. C. L. Davis and Nancy appear in the 1840 Craven census in the Tuscarora area. Lemuel died about 1843 and Nancy appears as an apparent widow in the 1850 and 1860 Craven censuses. Nancy Wetherington Davis appears in the 1870 and 1880 Craven census in the household of George and Mary Davis Lewis.

The children of Lemuel Davis and Nancy Wetherington were:

a. Joseph S. Davis (1837 –)
b. John S. Davis (1839 –)
c. Mary D. Davis (1841 -) m. 1st Alfred Wetherington120, 2nd George Lewis121
d. Jane L. Davis 1843 - 1892 m. Daniel Daugherty 1832 - 1893 122,123

The apparent sister living with brother, Solomon, Jr. (12th heir):

12. Mary Wetherington (1788 – c. 1872) Mary appears in the 1850124, 1860125 and 1870126 census, an apparent spinster, living in the household of Solomon Wetherington, Jr. in Tuscarora. Mary does not appear in the heir receipts for the estate of Solomon Wetherington of 1843. Some researchers have incorrectly reported the marriage of this Mary to Hardy Smith in 1834. Hardy Smith, the crier or auctioneer for the Solomon estate married a Mary Wetherington, but Hardy Smith’s estate record indicates his wife, Mary, died in January 1850. 127 Hardy died about April 1850 and the two children, John G. and Mary Smith were wards of Clement L. Davis until his death in 1855, when Solomon, Jr. became their guardian.128 Subsequently, the children are often incorrectly reported as issue of this Mary Wetherington, however this Mary would have been over 50 years of age at the birth of John G. Smith. The parents of this Mary Wetherington Smith are also unknown. The circumstances of Mary living with Solomon, Jr. for over 20 years suggests a close family tie, such as a sister.

The apparent sister living with brother, Solomon, Jr. (13th heir):

13. Susan Wetherington (1808- after 1850) married Hardy Outlaw in 1825 in Craven County.129 The 1840 Craven County census lists additional persons on the household of Solomon Wetherington, Jr. consistent with Susan Outlaw and her son Thomas.130 A second marriage occurred on November 17, 1840 in Craven County, when Susan Outlaw married Canny (aka Corney or Canady) Woolard, a possible relative of Hannah Wetherington Woolard. Craven County Court minutes for 1848 reveal a Canada Woolard returning a list of taxables for his property of 25 acres on the south side of Bachelor Creek.131 The 1850 Craven census lists a Corney and Susan Wetherington with a Thomas Outlaw in the household, Susan’s son by 1st husband, Hardy Outlaw.132

The known child of Susan Wetherington and Hardy Outlaw:

a. Thomas E. Outlaw 1829- 1898 m. Mary Brinkley 1831- 1903 133,134

Widely reported as children of Solomon Wetherington, but no supporting or contradictory records were found in Craven County records:

14. Jeremiah Wetherington (1789 – c. 1848) married Nancy Charlotte Davis in 1816 in Craven County.135 Jeremiah is listed in the 1820136 and 1830137 and 1840138 Craven County census. In the 1830 Craven census.
Jeremiah is listed with a female (age 30-40) and 2 male and 3 female minors under 15 years of age. No direct proof of Jeremiah being the son of Solomon has been found in any Craven County records. Also Jeremiah does not appear in the 1790 household of Solomon Wetherington, as he should have been listed if born in 1789.

The six known children of Jeremiah Wetherington and Nancy Davis were:

a. Dorcas Wetherington (1818 - b.1876) married Redding (Rigdon) Taylor.

b. Amos Wetherington 1820 – 1893 married 1st Mary Frances Owens and 2nd Clarky Cannon Yates.

e. Abner Wetherington (1830 - 1865) married Elizabeth Hawkins.

f. Alfred Wetherington (1832-1865) married Mary D. Davis.

See Chapter 8 Jeremiah Wetherington.

15. Lovicy (aka Vicie) Wetherington (1790/3- after 1860) married 1st a Hardy. Vicie Wetherington Hardy married 2nd Thomas C. Smith in Craven County in 1848. Vicy, age 60, is listed in the 1850 Craven census along with Thomas Smith, age 46. Thomas C. Smith died before 1853 and his estate record names Lovicy as receiving a year's widow's provision. In the 1860 census, Vicey Smith, age 80? (strike through on census) is in the household of Rhoderick S. Wetherington, son of John C. Wetherington, along with Lawson D. Wetherington in Tuscarora. No records proving Lovicy to be a daughter of Solomon has been found. No record of issue for Lovicy has been found.

[End transcription]
Susanna Davis Wetherington died in October 1840, soon after Solomon. Her will left the bulk of her estate to three women: Maria Shute, Ellender Debruhl, and her cousin Phoebe Bogey. Also named in the will is James and Nancy Wetherington, son of Solomon Wetherington and 1st wife Mary Moore. Rachel [Mathews] Witherington, the 1st wife of Solomon Wetherington, Jr. also is named. Susanna’s will was witnessed by James Wetherington and Solomon Wetherington, sons of Solomon Wetherington and 1st wife Mary Moore.

The will mentions two women named Nancy. One Nancy Witherington would be Nancy Witherington, the wife of James Wetherington. The other Nancy appears to be Nancy Witherington Davis, the daughter of Solomon Sr, and wife of Lemuel Davis. There are no receipts for the disbursement of Susanna’s estate in Craven county records. With the death of Susanna Wetherington also in 1840, Marcus Cicero Bogey, neighbor and executor of her estate, signed for the other 50% of the widow’s legacy left by Solomon to Susanna Davis Wetherington.

Solomon Witherington died in Craven County on June 28, 1840. He was buried in the family cemetery in Tuscarora. His will of June 11, 1839 is recorded in Craven County, naming his 2nd wife, Susanna Davis Wetherington and Lemuel Davis as executors. However Susanna died soon after Solomon in November 1840 and Lemuel Davis handled the estate affairs.

The will of Solomon Witherington is recorded in Craven County Will Book D page 10 on June 11, 1839, (see image above) but does not name the heirs/children. Reportedly the original estate papers were copied or transcribed by the Church of LDS and researcher, Elizabeth Moore before it was lost or damaged. The LDS record names the following 17 heirs: Sarah, Jesse, Hannah, Mary, Jeremiah, Richard, Lovicy, William, Anna, Thomas, John, Joseph, Solomon, James, Holland, Susan, and Nancy. The remaining names listed above (18 to 22) do not appear in the LDS record for Solomon, estate papers, or as purchasers at the estate sale of 1840. The estate records of Solomon Witherington includes receipts for 10 of the heirs, see below.

The estate record contains receipts for the following ten heirs:

(Husband of Sarah Wetherington)
The estate papers reveal there were thirteen (13) heirs to Solomon Witherington’s estate but only ten (10) heirs are proven by name in the estate residue receipts. There are three receipts missing from the estate papers. An inspection of the original documents on file in the North Carolina Archives in Raleigh verifies the remaining papers match the current microfilm record. One page of original receipts (8 remaining on this sheet) has a portion of the page cut away. It is not known if this sheet was used for the missing receipts or cut away and simply used for another purpose. Two other individuals receipt in the file makeup the ten (10) heirs on file. Only 3 disbursement receipts appear missing from the records. The LDS files record of 17 children is incorrect. Also even if some of the estate papers were damaged or lost, the surviving papers clear indicate there were only 13 heirs.

Nancy Wetherington Davis, wife of Lemuel Davis, is name in the will of Susannah Wetherington in 1840, and accounts for the 11th heir.

Mary Wetherington, spinster, lived with Solomon Wetherington, Jr. from 1850 through 1870. Mary is likely the 12th heir, however she was not the Mary Wetherington, wife of Hardy Smith.

It is known that several of the unnamed potential heirs of Solomon were still alive in 1842. Jeremiah died about 1848, Lovicy (Vicey) died after 1860, Redding died after 1870, Susan died after 1880, and Mary died after 1870. Silas, Rueben, and Pollie are not considered potential heirs by this researcher, but they were all alive in 1843.

John C. Wetherington, Redding Wetherington, and Holland Wetherington Amyett, wife of Francis Amyett, are disproved as heirs by a Gift Deed granted by their father, William Wetherington, Sr in 1827. These three Wetheringtons were the children of William Wetherington, Sr. and Susanna Coward. John C. and Redding Wetherington are again recorded as the sons of William Wetherington in a deed of 1834. A deed from Redding Wetherington to Solomon Jr in 1845 also names William Wetherington (d. 1844) as the father of Redding and exempts the sale of William’s gravesite in the deeded tract.

This leaves the following Wetheringtons as contenders for the remaining heir:

Group 1 – Lived in the Tuscarora area per the Craven census:

Jeremiah Wetherington died about 1848 and lived in Bachelor Creek area. Lovicy Wetherington Smith lived in Tuscarora in the 1860 Craven census.

All of Group 1 lived in the Tuscarora area per various Craven records and are the most likely candidates for the two unconfirmed Solomon Wetherington heirs.

Group 2 – Reported by other researchers as children:
Pollie (aka Mary) Wetherington married Reuben Anderson in 1818.
Reuben Witherington (1795-) twin – Lived in Pitt County.
Silas Witherington (1795-) twin – Lived in Pitt County.

None of Group 2 are named in census records in the Tuscarora area or in Tuscarora area deeds and therefore are less likely candidates for Solomon’s unconfirmed heirs.

Group 3- Conclusively disproved by other documents: 173,174

Redding Wetherington (1809-1891) was the son of William Wetherington Sr.
John C. Wetherington (1800– after 1840) was also the son of William, Sr.
Holland Wetherington Amyett Cummings (1806 – after 1880) was the daughter of William Wetherington, Sr.

These three people lived in Tuscarora but were not children of Solomon Wetherington but the children of Solomon’s brother William Wetherington, Sr. and his wife Susan Coward.

In Conclusion

The popular list of Solomon’s 17 children cannot be verified with existing Craven county records. The reportedly ‘saved’ transcription by the LDS church is also in doubt as the conflicting gift deed of 1827 granted William Wetherington, Sr disproves two of the children listed in the LDS record. Futhermore even if the LDS ‘saved’ the estate records and recorded the entire set of heirs, the surviving estate records agree there were only 13 heirs to the well documented estate other than wife Susannah Davis Wetherington. The only obvious missing components of Solmon’s estate papers are the 3 missing disbursement receipts. The LDS record on line at familysearch.com listing the devisees of Solomon’s will lists the popular, although incorrect, 17 children above.175

See Chapter 5 More Tuscarora Area Wetheringtons.

Unproven by this researcher, the status of Jeremiah, Lovicy, and Susan could not be proven. Craven County records at this time reveal only 11 known children, and a count of thirteen heirs. If the list of fifteen above is correct, then for an unknown reason, two of the fifteen did not receive a portion of the estate, although they were known to be alive at the event.

Chapter 5  More Tuscarora Area Wetheringtons

Solomon Wetherington was a prominent figure in the Tuscarora area from 1800-1840 and also one of the best documented early Wetheringtons in Craven County. He was not, however, the sole Wetherington patriarch of Tuscarora. At least five households of Wetheringtons lived in the Tuscarora area in 1800.¹

The Wetherington households in Tuscarora during 1800 were James, Joseph, Solomon, Thomas, and William Witherington, reportedly all brothers of Solomon.² Solomon’s sister, Sarah, was married to Abraham Taylor and also lived in the Tuscarora area.³, ⁴

Revolutionary war pension records of Solomon and William reveal they were brothers.⁵ The brothers appear to have migrated along with Solomon from the Sandhills area of Craven and Lenoir counties to the Tuscarora area prior to 1800.⁶ By 1830 Joseph, Solomon, Thomas, and William Witherington remain in the Tuscarora area.⁷, ⁸ James Wetherington disappears from the Craven census after 1800 having left the area.

James, Joseph, and Thomas Wetherington were reportedly the brothers of Solomon and William Wetherington, but the relationship is not confirmed in Craven county records. James appears to have migrated after the 1800 census and Thomas appears to have died after 1830, and Joseph Wetherington appears to have died after 1840.

The Craven census between 1800-1840 records the number of males in each of these Witherington households, shown below. The estate papers of Solomon Wetherington reveals the name of seven sons.⁹ A gift deed from William Wetherington, Sr. reveals the names of two of his sons.¹⁰

No records yet found in Craven County reveal the names of Thomas and Joseph Witherington's sons. It appears that all of the elder Witheringtons in the 1800 census are brothers, so therefore it is likely that any younger Witherington's in the later 1820-1850 census are the children of the four Witherington brothers that resided in Tuscarora from 1800 - 1840.

With Solomon's brother James Wetherington leaving the area in the early 1800's, this places at least 15 male children in the Tuscarora area. In addition to the nine names in the table above, the five unplaced known male Wetheringtons of the area include Jeremiah Wetherington, William B. Wetherington, Horatio Wetherington, Gideon Wetherington, and Wallace Wetherington. These five males account for the majority of the males revealed by this research, making these unplaced males most likely sons of Joseph or Thomas Wetherington.

Gideon Wetherington died about 1826 in Craven County. He does not appear in any Craven county census. Three marriages are recorded in Craven County but his estate papers name only one child, Mary, and her guardian, William Wetherington. Gideon’s 3rd wife, Nancy Simmons, later married John Hall. The relationship between William and Gideon Wetherington is not known, but there are several Craven deeds where one of these two Wetheringtons is witnessing a deed for the other. The estate papers of Gideon also list a payment to Horatio Wetherington, but the relationship is not named in the estate papers.

Horatio Wetherington also lived in the Tuscarora area in 1820. Horatio married Hester Civils on April 20, 1815 in Craven County. Horatio was murdered in 1833, leaving a large unnamed household. Horatio did not leave a will or estate records, nor is he listed in any Craven County deeds. Only this New Bern newspaper article in The Sentinel dated February 22, 1833 has been found:

Two sailors, belonging to the Revenue Cutter Dallas, have been committed to the jail of this county, charged with the murder of Mr. Horatio Worthington. The deceased was a farmer, who resided a few miles from this place; and a more inoffensive man never existed. As the charges against the accused are to undergo judicial investigation, we decline giving publicity to the particulars of the case which we have heard.

Jeremiah Wetherington (1789- about 1848), reportedly a son of Solomon, however the 1790 Craven census of Solomon's household does not list a 2nd male child, (Jesse being born about 1785) and Solomon's estate record does not name Jeremiah via a receipt for a share of the estate. Jeremiah's widow, Nancy Charlotte Davis Wetherington appears in the 1850 census in the household of Richard Davis. Most researchers include Jeremiah as a son of Solomon Wetherington, but no definite record has been located in Craven County by this researcher.

See Chapter 8 Jeremiah Wetherington.
By 1840 - 1860 almost all of the male Wetheringtons living in Tuscarora are the descendants of Solomon Wetherington and Mary Moore. The known exceptions are:

1. John C. Wetherington (1800 – after 1842) was the son of William Wetherington, Sr. and Susannah Coward. John C. appears to have died before 1860 as his wife Narcissie Shute Wetherington (1816-) is listed in her father’s household in 1860. Roderick and Hannah Wetherington, minor children of John C. Wetherington, were living with Henry Shute and his wife, Maria Stevenson in 1850. In 1860 Hannah, age 25, was still in the Shute household along with her mother Narcissie Shute Wetherington.

2. Rhoderick Shute Wetherington (1839) - 1862 was listed in the 1860 census, age 19, in Tuscarora, and died in the Civil war at Garysburg, NC of disease. Rhoderick never married and his estate passed to his sister Hannah Ann Wetherington, the wife of Asa Mallard. He was the son of John C. Wetherington and Narcissa Shute.

3. Wallace Wetherington (1801 - after 1850) appears in the 1840 Craven census listed with an apparent wife and no children. Wallace Wetherington married Mary Civils in 1842 in Craven County. In the 1850 census, Wallace is listed in the 9th township near Perfection, an apparent widower. The lineage of Wallace Wetherington has not been determined, but he was likely a son of either Joseph or Thomas Wetherington.

4. William B. Wetherington (abt. 1788 - after 1870) William B. is most likely a son of one of Solomon’s brothers, either Joseph or Thomas, but the relationship is not confirmed. Another researcher, George Wetherington, reports William B. Wetherington as the son of Robert Wetherington, the son of Solomon Witherington (1703 - 1766).

5. Redding Wetherington (1809-1891) Redding Witherington was born on February 18, 1809 and died on March 19, 1891, the son of William Wetherington and Susannah Coward. He married Nancy Ann Smith daughter of Sherod T. Smith, in 1836 in Craven County. Redding received deeds in Craven County in 1834, one from John C. Wetherington and another from Jeremiah Wetherington. In 1849 Washington Carman released a Redding Wetherington from a mortgage in Craven County. The 1850 Weakley County Tennessee census list Redding Witherington age 42, and wife Nancy, age 37. Also in the household is a M. Amyett age 22. Living in the area is Graves Fonville, age 50, from Craven County, North Carolina. The 1870 Weakley County, TN census lists Redding and son William Witherington. Two deeds exist in Craven County records that name Redding as the son of William Wetherington, Sr.

See Chapter 6 William B. Wetherington.
The result of this research indicates there were a large group of Wetherington families living in Tuscarora by 1850. More than half of the group, although not as well documented appear to be all nephews of Solomon Wetherington via his brothers Joseph, Thomas, and William Wetherington. These three brothers lived in the Tuscarora area in there later years and are the most likely candidates for the progenitors of the list of 15 males.

Chapter 6  William B. Wetherington 1788 -

William B. Wetherington was born about 1788-1791 likely in Lenoir County or Craven County. 1 This researcher speculates he was most likely the son of Thomas or Joseph Wetherington, brothers of Solomon Wetherington (1761-1840). Other researchers, name William's father as Thomas Wetherington, the brother of Solomon (1761-1840) or Robert Wetherington, Sr, Solomon's uncle. 2,3 The father of William B. Wetherington remains inconclusive at this time.

William B. Wetherington married 1st Nancy Phillips (aka Lovie 4) in Craven County in 1820. 5 In the 1830 Craven census, William appears as one of the three William Witherington's listed, along with Solomon's brother William, Sr. (1759-1844) and Solomon's son William (1795- after 1850). 6

William B. Wetherington was also listed in the 1840 Craven census. 7 His wife, Nancy (Lovie) Phillips apparently died prior to 1840, as she was not listed in the 1840 census. In the 1850 Craven census, William is listed with 2nd wife Gatsey Willis and children in the Tuscarora area. In 1860 he is again listed with Gatsey and children in the Tuscarora area. 8,9 William is listed in 1870 at age 82, an apparent widower in the Perfection area of Craven County. William B. Wetherington died after 1870, likely in Craven County, and his burial site is unknown.

William B. Wetherington and family lived in the Tuscarora area and also in the Perfection area. Most of their adult children lived in other parts of the county, but one son, William Henry Wetherington, made his home in Tuscarora on the south side of Rollover Creek.
William Henry Wetherington, the son of William B. Wetherington, was born June 6, 1834 and died August 25, 1907 in Craven County. He married Mary L. Civils, the daughter of Stephen Civils and Ann Anderson of Tuscarora. A cooper and farmer, William and family lived on the south side of Rollover Creek in Tuscarora. Mary and family were members of the Gethsemane FWB Church in Tuscarora in 1916, and many of the family members are buried in the church cemetery and Stewart cemetery.

The children of William Henry Wetherington and Mary L. Civils:

1. Duffey Sylvester Wetherington 1868 - 1930 - reportedly never married, he was a stalwart member of the Gethsemane Church, serving as Sunday school superintendent for 22 years. Mollie died of influenza in 1918 and was buried in the Gethsemane church cemetery. Alex died in 1959 and was also buried in the Gethsemane cemetery, with a handmade marker along with his son, William Lesley Wetherington (no dates on either stone). Chapter 7  Jesse Wetherington 1785 – after 1860

Jesse Wetherington, the eldest son of Solomon Wetherington and Mary Moore, was born in 1785 and died after 1860 in Craven County. Jesse married Lydia Penelope Davis, the daughter of Lawson Davis and Dorcas Adams, in 1812 in Craven County. 1 Jesse also appears in the 1812 Muster Rolls in the 2nd Regiment, Craven County. 2 Jesse appears in the 1820 Craven census 3 and in 1830, he appears in the Carteret County, NC census. 4 In 1840, 1850 and 1860, Jesse and family appear in Craven County censuses. 5,6,7 There are no estate records or deed transactions for Jesse or Lydia Wetherington in Craven County records. Jesse Wetherington does appear in the estate record of Solomon Wetherington in 1842, receiving a share of his father’s estate.8 Jesse and Lydia’s burial place is unknown, however is most like the Wetherington family cemetery on Rollover Creek. 9

Jesse Wetherington and Lydia Davis had 4 known children:

1. Erasmus Samuel Wetherington 1813 – 1893 was born in Craven County in 1813. 10,11,12 Erasmus married Marina about 1837. Marina was born on December 21, 1812 and died on November 25, 1890. Marina was buried in the Stewart Cemetery in Tuscarora.13 Erasmus is listed in the 1840 Craven County census with 2 females and 1 male in his household. 14 In the 1850 census Erasmus Wetherington is listed with wife, Mariana, and children Mary, James, Samuel, Lemuel, Julia, Marcus, and William. 15 In the 1860 Craven census, Erasmus is listed with two further children, Redding, and Francis M. Wetherington (male). 16 Erasmus died on February 24, 1893 and was buried in the Stewart Cemetery in Tuscarora.17

The children of Erasmus S. and Marina A. Wetherington were: 18,19

a. James Riley Wetherington (1837) –1862 (never married)
b. Mary J. Wetherington (1838-)
c. Samuel S. Wetherington 1840 – 1901 m. Betsey Civils (1840) - 1921

2. Lawson Davis Wetherington (1815 or 1820- after 1880) married Dove Littleton in Craven County in 1844. 21 Elva Littleton, a widow and mother of Dove, granted Lawson a deed in 1846. 22 The 1850 census lists Lawson Wetherington living in the household of George Carraway near the home of his brother Erasmus Wetherington. 23 The 1860 Craven census lists L. D. Wetherington living next door to Solomon Wetherington in Tuscarora. 24 The 1870 Craven census lists Lawson living in the home of Solomon Wetherington. The 1880 Craven census lists Lawson living with his brother, Clement L. Wetherington. Lawson divorced Dove before 1850 and there were no known children by this marriage. A likely son, Thomas Wetherington, appears in the 1880 census in the home of his uncle, Clement L. Wetherington.

3. Beneta Davis Wetherington 1820-1903 was born on October 10, 1820 and died on August 10, 1903. Beneta married John Stewart 1809 –1881 in Craven County in 1839. Beneta died in 1903 in Morehead City, NC. John and Beneta W. Stewart were buried in the Stewart Cemetery at Tuscarora.

See Chapter 21, John Stewart.

4. Clement Lemuel Wetherington 1824-1906 was born on December 20, 1824 and died on April 2, 1906. Clement married Julia Ann White in Craven County in 1849. Julia died at the age of 68 years on August 8, 1894. In the 1850 and 1860, Clement and Julia live in the household along Clement’s parents, Jesse and Lydia Wetherington. C. L. Wetherington also served as a Justice of the Peace in Craven County about 1875. Both Clement and Julia Wetherington were buried in the Asbury Methodist Church cemetery in Craven County.

The children of Clement L. Wetherington and Julia A. White were:

- b. Mary Frances Wetherington (1853 - 1911)

Chapter 8  Jeremiah Wetherington 1789 -

Jeremiah Wetherington, reportedly a son of Solomon Wetherington and Mary Moore, was born about 1785 and died before 1850 in Craven County, NC. Jeremiah married Nancy Charlotte Davis in 1816 in Craven County. Little is known about Jeremiah, his name does not appear in the surviving Solomon Wetherington’s estate papers. This researcher concludes Jeremiah was most likely the son of Solomon’s brother, Thomas. In 1832, the Craven county Sheriff auctioned 100 acres of land near Bachelor Creek belonging to Jeremiah for $36 to Asa Jones.

There are two records of Jeremiah Wetherington receiving land grants in the Bachelor Creek area in 1834. He appears to transfer these lands in the same year. Jeremiah granted a deed to Solomon Wetherington, Jr in 1834 and in 1834 Jeremiah granted a deed to Reading Wetherington on the North side of Bachelor Creek.

Other than the deed transactions and census enumerations, little is known about Jeremiah after his marriage. He lived in the Bachelor Creek area and reportedly died about 1848 or 1849. Although several of the younger sons of Solomon Wetherington received gift deeds from their father, there are no recorded deeds from Solomon to Jeremiah or Jeremiah’s brother, Jesse Wetherington. The gravesite of Jeremiah and wife Nancy Davis is also unknown. Although there was a relatively large number of people living the Bachelor Creek area, most of the gravesites have disappeared with time, only stone markers now survive in any of the Tuscarora cemeteries.

LDS church records list Jeremiah as the son of Solomon Wetherington, however no Craven county records support this parentage. Of the sons and reported sons of Solomon Wetherington, only Jeremiah cannot be substantiated or disproved. The 1790 census lists four minors of Solomon, one being male, consistent with Jesse Wetherington, the eldest son. Jeremiah, reportedly born in 1789, does not appear in the household statistics for Solomon Wetherington in the 1790 census.

In the 1800 Craven county census, Solomon Wetherington’s household lists 4 minor males, and 5 minor females. If Jeremiah were living in the household, there would have been 5 minor males counted: Jesse, Jeremiah, Richard, William, and Thomas. Estate records and gift deeds confirm the parentage of Jesse, Richard, William, and Thomas. It appears neither the 1790 or 1800 Craven census can confirm the possibility of Jeremiah living in the household of Solomon Wetherington.

After the death of Jeremiah about 1848, Nancy Wetherington appears in the 1850 Craven County census in the household of Richard and Catherine Davis, along with her son, Alfred Wetherington.
The estate records of Alfred Wetherington in 1865 summon the siblings listed below to the settlement of the estate.

Chapter 9  Solomon Wetherington Jr. 1804-1880

Solomon Wetherington, Jr. 1804-1880, the son of Solomon and Mary Moore, was born on January 39, 1804. Solomon married (1st) Rachel Matthews (1798-1853) in 1832 in Lenoir County and 2nd Harriet Ipock Avery (aka Averitt) on February 22, 1854 in Craven County. The marriage license was lost and Jeremiah Heath married them a second time on December 10, 1854. His gravestone also records he was baptized on Mary 10, 1824. A prominent farmer, Solomon appears in the 1840, 1850, 1860, 1870, and 1880 Craven census. Solomon died in on April 13, 1880 from dropsy and was buried in the family cemetery in Tuscarora. His obituary appeared in the 1880 New Bern Weekly Journal.

A prominent farmer and landowner, the 1850 Craven County census lists Solomon Wetherington farming assets as 6 horses and mules, 90 head of cattle, 107 sheep, and 60 pigs. He also produced 800 bushels of corn, 500 bushels or sweet potatoes, and 200 pounds of wool. The 1850 industrial schedule lists Solomon as a turpentine maker, with assets of $8,175, 9 employees, and producing 1500 barrels of turpentine. Also Solomon appears on the 1850 slave schedule holding 18 slaves.

A December 3, 1853 newspaper account for a runaway slave:

$50 Reward.

Runaway from the subscriber, a negro man named AMOS, but more generally called AMOS MONTFORD. The said negro is about five feet six inches high, and of light complexion. He has a wife at Mr. Daniel Andrew’s in whose neighborhood he may be probably lurking. All persons are forbidden from harbouring or employing said negro, and I warn Captains of Vessels and others from carrying him away as in either case I am determined to rigidly enforce the law against all persons so offending. The above reward will be given for his confinement in Jail or delivery to me so that I can get him.

November 26, 1853. Solomon Wetherington.
An 1861 newspaper account thanks Solomon for the support of the local Confederate militia with his donation of fresh vegetables to the troops:

From the New Bern Daily Progress, February 11, 1862:

Mr. Editor – Allow me through the columns of your paper to publicly thank Mr. Solomon Wetherington, of this county, for his kind and considerate contribution of vegetables and other luxuries to my Company (Core Creek Volunteers) during their service in this place. Such acts of thoughtful consideration are deserving the highest praise and are duly appreciated both by myself and the men of my Company, and I, take this opportunity of returning him our thanks for his repeated acts of patriotic devotion to the necessities of the soldiers of his country.

R. A. Russell, Capt. Core Creek Volunteers

From the Newbern Daily Journal of Commerce, Tuesday, July 23, 1867:

We learn by a passenger on the train last evening that still another Robbery has been perpetrated in the region of Tuscarora, about 10 miles from the city. We did not learn the name of the party robbed, but hear that they took everything he had. This was night before last. On yesterday in broad daylight, four Negroes went to the residence of Mr. Solomon Wetherington near Tuscarora, but Mr. Wetherington not showing any fear they departed. It was thought to be the party that did the robbing the night before.

Solomon’s obituary appeared in the Newbernian, April 17, 1880:

Died. - At his residence in Core creek section, Craven county on Tuesday, April 13th, 1880, Mr. Solomon Wetherington, aged 76 years.

Mr. Wetherington was widely known in this section as a hardworking, thrifty and successful farmer, and for years was considered one of Craven's landmarks. For fifty years he had been a consistent member of the Free Will Baptist Church and his door stood ever open for the admission of the preacher of any denomination. He was very generally liked, and from his frequent visits to this city, his genial and honest face will be as keenly missed upon our streets, as that of any of our old resident citizens. Some six months ago, evidently having a premonition of his early demise, he ordered from Mr. Geo. W. Claypoole of this city, a marble tombstone to be erected at his grave upon his death, and the ad remainder of the uncertainty of life, having been completed for months, with the exception for the time of his death, was on Tuesday called for, by sorrowing relatives, and now marks the last resting place of one who if he could not lay claim in life to superior brilliancy of intellect, went down to his grave, loved by his relatives and respected by his neighbors for his honesty and sterling integrity. Peace to his ashes.

Chapter 10  Amos Wetherington 1820-1893

Amos Wetherington, the son of Jeremiah Wetherington and Nancy C. Davis, was born on March 17, 1820 and died on September 19, 1893 in Craven County. Amos married 1st, Mary Frances Owens in Jones County on November 30, 1848. Mary Frances Owens, the daughter of Archibald Bishop and Frances Owens, was born in Jones County about 1822 and died about 1870 in Jones County. Amos and Mary appear in the 1850 Jones County census in the White Oak District along with son, Christopher. Amos and Mary again appear in the 1860 Jones County census in the White Oak District with children Christopher, Wealthy, Walter, Abner, Edward, and Frances Ann. Walter’s only appearance is the 1860 census and he likely died young.

The 1870 Jones County census lists Amos, Mary, Christopher, and William Wetherington. The relationship of William Wetherington is not known. Amos’ son Abner is listed in the 1870 Craven census in the home of John Ed Taylor and Wealthy Ann, his aunt, in the 9th Township in Tuscarora. The whereabouts of the other children were unknown in 1870. Amos later married a young widow, Clarky Jane Cannon Yates, about 1870 or 1871 in Jones County. Clarky, the daughter of Jeremiah and Charlotte Cannon, was born on September 15, 1844 in Jones County and died in June 12, 1917. Amos and Clarky Wetherington appear in the 1880 Jones County census with several of the children by this marriage.

It is not clear when Amos left Tuscarora and moved to Jones County. The 1840 census lists Jeremiah in the Tuscarora area with three males in the household, although the eldest is listed as age 10-15 and is not consistent with the known age of Amos. The 1841 Craven school census does not list Amos, but reports all of Amos’ siblings in District No. 8 (Tuscarora). The 1845 school census lists only brothers Alfred and Abner. Amos married in 1848 and lived in the White Oak district of Jones county in the 1850, 1860, 1870, and 1880 censuses. Amos appears again in Craven County in the late 1880s in the Jasper area near Bethany Christian church. His sons Edward and Amos T. Wetherington appear in the 1880 census in Craven County.

Amos and Mary lived in the Black Swamp area in the White Oak District of Jones County near his in-laws, Archibald Owens and family in 1850. Amos and family lived in Jones County until sometime after 1880. In 1889 Amos and Clarky purchased 5 acres in Craven County on the Neuse Road near the present Bethany Christian Church in Jasper from Hezekiah Davis. In 1891 they sold the property and may have moved to New Bern. Amos Wetherington died on September 19, 1893 and was buried in the Cedar Grove cemetery in New Bern.

Amos’ obituary appeared in the September 23, 1893 New Bern Weekly Journal:
On Tuesday, 19th inst, at the residence in this city of his son-in-law, Mr. W. J. Osteen, Mr. Amos Wetherington of Core Creek, aged 64 years. Death ensued as the result of an injury accidentally received while cutting wood during the cold snap of last winter. Mr. Wetherington was a good and industrious man. He leaves his wife and nine grown children. He was buried in New Berne. Rev. F. W. Farries conducting the funeral.

Clarky was living with her daughter, Arpelia W. McCosley, on Spring Street in New Bern when she died on June 12, 1917. Clarky Wetherington was buried in Cedar Grove cemetery with Amos and several of their children. 15,16

Chapter 13  Noah Wetherington 1886 – 1919

Noah Wetherington, the son of Abner B. Wetherington and Beneta Jane Eubanks, was born on July 6, 1886 in Tuscarora. ¹ Noah appears in the early Sunday school records of the Gethsemane Free Will Baptist church beginning in 1892. ² Noah married Mary Letha Moore on May 24, 1907 in Craven County. ³ Letha Moore, born on September 19, 1890, was the daughter of Wiley Augustus Moore and Nancy Shepard Stewart. ⁴ Noah and Letha lived in Tuscarora on the south side of Tomahawk Branch on the Tuscarora-Rhems Road. Noah and several of his brothers worked with their father, Abner, in the lumber business. Noah and brother-in-law, Herman Stewart, along with Josephus Wetherington cut local timber and also ran a sawmill in Tuscarora.

In the influenza epidemic of 1918-1919, Noah became ill and died on January 26, 1919 leaving Letha and several small children. Noah was buried in the Stewart Cemetery and in the 1950s his remains were relocated to the New Bern Memorial cemetery to the Elbert Ray Wetherington family plot. ⁵ Letha made a living for a time as a midwife and infant nurse and later worked for Dr. Christopher S. Barker in New Bern for many years. Letha died on July 6, 1958 and was buried in the New Bern Memorial cemetery. ⁶

The home place was displaced in the 1970s by the construction of the US 70 bypass. The home was moved to Sanders Lane near Clarks and remodeled extensively.

Chapter 14  Davis Family

Several Davis family members are associated with the Wetheringtons of Tuscarora in the early 1800s. Most notable is Susanah Davis (c. 1780), the 2nd wife of Solomon Wetherington, however many other connections are also significant.

Reportedly the sister of Lawson Davis, Susanah appears to be a spinster or childless widow that married Solomon Wetherington in 1823. Susanah’s will mentions no children and only names one brother, Johnathan Davis.

Among the reported children of Lawson Davis were Nancy Davis (1796), Lydia born 1871, Susannah born 1794, Clement L. Davis, Sr. and Lawson Wesley Davis, born 1791. These unconfirmed sisters of Lawson all married Wetherington brothers in Tuscarora.

1. Nancy C. Davis married Jeremiah Wetherington in 1816.
2. Lydia Penelope (Wood) Davis married Jesse Wetherington in 1812.
3. Susannah Davis married Thomas Wetherington in 1820 and left the area.

Clement L. Davis was born about 1782. He married Dorcas Adams (1787-) and was the father of Lemuel Davis. Clement died on July 20, 1855 at the age of 73.

Lemuel Davis, the son of Clement, married Nancy Wetherington on October 19, 1835 in Craven County. Nancy was the youngest daughter of Solomon Wetherington and Mary Moore. Lemuel Davis died about 1843. His widow, Nancy, and children lived with Clement and Dorcas Davis in 1850.

Nancy Charlotte Davis married Jeremiah Wetherington in 1816 in Craven County. After the death of Jeremiah, Nancy appears in the 1850 census in the household of Richard Davis and wife, Catharine Prescott.

Lydia P. Davis (1781 – 1862) married Jesse Wetherington in 1812 in Craven County. Lydia was the daughter of Lawson Davis (1753-) and Dorcas Adams.

Richard Davis, 1820 – 1886, the son of Lawson Wesley Davis, married Catharine Prescott. In 1850, Nancy Davis Wetherington, widow of Jeremiah lived with with her nephew, Richard Davis and Catherine Prescott Davis.

Daniel Davis, the son of Lawson Wesley Davis, lived in the Tuscarora area in 1850. He later lived in the Asbury section of Craven County. E. Z. R. Davis was his son.

Lawson Wesley Davis married Margaret Perkins on April 13, 1814. Lawson Wesley was the son of Lawson Davis (1753-) and Dorcas Adams. His known children were Richard, Daniel, and Wesley Davis. Lydia P. Davis, wife of Jesse Wetherington, was Lawson’s sister.
Jonathan (aka John) Davis, the brother of Suannah Davis Wetherington, also lived in the Tucarora area. Although his legacy from Susannah’s will of 1839 was only 10 cents, Solomon Wetherington, Jr. conveyed a tract of 400 acres in Tuscarora to Jonathan Davis in December 1840 for one dollar. Born about 1815, Johnathan (John) and wife Maria Riggs (1824-) are listed in the 1850 Craven census in the Tuscarora area.

Susannah Davis, the 2nd wife of Solomon Wetherington was born circa 1775-80. They were married in 1823 and Susannah died in 1840 without any known issue. Her will of 1840 names only her cousins, stepchildren by Solomon, and one brother.

Susanna Davis married Thomas Wetherington, son of Solomon Wetherington, in 1820 in Craven County. She appears to have died prior to 1828 when Thomas married 2nd, Keziah Tyson. One child of Thomas Wetherington, Ira, born 1827, apparently was the son of Susanna Davis Wetherington.

Mary D. Davis – 1839 – the daughter of Clement L. and Nancy Wetherington, married Alfred Wetherington in 1858. After the death of Alfred, Mary married George P. Lewis and lived in the Asbury area.

John Davis m. Sidney Wetherington in 1822 and appears to have left the area. The marriage bondsman was Horatio Wetherington (likely a brother).

There were several Davis households in Tuscarora prior to 1850. After the Civil War the Davis families migrated away from the Tuscarora area, relocating to the nearby Asbury area on Core Creek in the 9th Township of Craven County.

Some of the Davis family connections to the Wetheringtons of Tuscarora
Chapter 15  Taylor Families

At least two generations of the Abraham Taylor family lived in the Tuscarora area between 1790 and the middle 1800s. The early Wetheringtons were closely connected to this Taylor family in the Tuscarora area.

Reportedly, Solomon’s father, Thomas Wetherington, married a daughter of Abraham Taylor, Sr in Lenoir County.

Abraham Taylor, Sr also held a patent for 640 acres in Contentnea Neck and an Abraham Taylor, Jr held a patent for 640 acres at Bachelor Creek.

Abraham Taylor, Jr married Sarah Wetherington, a sister of Solomon Wetherington, in 1787 in Craven County. It appears that Abraham Taylor lived on his holdings in Tuscarora and between about 1785 – 1800 Sarah’s brothers, Solomon, Thomas, William, Joseph, and James migrated from Lenoir County to the Rollover Creek area of Tuscarora.

Although many family accounts claim Solomon Wetherington received land grants for property on Bachelor Creek, the land records reveal that Solomon purchased property from Abraham Taylor in 1796. Other tracts were purchased from Andrew Richardson and Francis Moore. There were several land grants held by Abraham Taylor, Jr in the Bachelor Creek area, but there are no recorded grants for Solomon Wetherington in the Bachelor Creek area in Craven County records.

Alexander Taylor (1776- after 1860) married Sarah Wetherington (1783 – after 1860), the daughter of Solomon Wetherington in April 4, 1803 in Craven County. Alexander is listed in the 1840 Craven census and the 1850 census lists Alexander Taylor as deaf along with Sarah and a probable grandson, Isaac Taylor, age 21. Another Isaac Taylor, age 47, is also listed in the 1850 Craven census, their likely son. Alexander and Sally Taylor also appear in the 1860 Craven census.

The children of Alexander Taylor and Sarah Wetherington:

a. Isaac Taylor 1803 -

John Taylor married Anna Wetherington (1797 – after 1860) a daughter of Solomon Wetherington, on January 21, 1820 in Craven County. John apparently died before 1850.

The children of Anna Wetherington and John Taylor were:

Stephen Taylor married Rebecca Wetherington (1820) – 1898, the daughter of Jeremiah Wetherington, in 1843 in Craven County. Rebecca died in 1898 and was buried in the Gethsemane FWB Church cemetery at Tuscarora.

The children of Stephen Taylor and Rebecca Wetherington were:

The children of Alexander Taylor and Phoebe Wetherington were: 24

a. Elizabeth Taylor (1838-)
b. Isaac Taylor (1835-)
c. Henry Taylor (1848- )

Other Taylor family connections were:

Richelda Taylor, the daughter of Abraham and Sarah Taylor, married John Moore, the father of John Clayton Moore on February 5, 1852 in Craven County. John and Richelda are buried in the Moore family cemetery in Tuscarora.

See Chapter 17 John Moore Family.

Elizabeth Taylor married Thomas Wetherington, the brother of Solomon, on January 11, 1788 in Craven County.

Josiah Taylor, the son of John Taylor and Anna Wetherington, married Mary Stewart Moore, the widow of Wiley Moore (1804-1850) in 1851 in Craven County. Mary Taylor died about 1877 and Josiah married 2nd Clara Ann Perkins in 1878 in Craven County.

Lewis G. Taylor, son of James O. and Sallie Taylor was born in 1838 and died in 1919. Reportedly never married, his sister, Mary Taylor, born about 1832 married an unknown Wetherington. Lewis G. Taylor is buried in Clarks, NC on the south side of the Craven County Industrial Park in the Taylor Cemetery.
Chapter 16  Wiley Augustus Moore 1804 -

The name Moore appears in early Tuscarora area records in 1798, in a deed from Thomas Wetherington to a Francis Moore for 100 acres on Bachelor Creek and Deep Branch. In 1808 Francis Moore sold this property to Solomon Wetherington. An 1820 deed to Gideon Wetherington mentions a Moore lease to land on Beaver Dam Branch, the area of the now John Moore homeplace.

By 1850, Wiley A. Moore and John Moore appear in Tuscarora records but it is not known if they recent arrivals to the area or related to the Moore’s of the early 1800’s. The relationship between John Moore 1816-1892 and Wiley Moore (1804 –c. 1850) is not currently known. Both men appear in Tuscarora prior to the Civil War and the family groups live in close proximity to one another. This researcher speculates John and Wiley were likely related. Old family photographs from the John Moore family also contained a photograph of Augustus Moore. Another Moore family, Charles Moore (1807-) also lived in the Tuscarora area in 1860 near John Moore and this relation is unclear at this time.

Wiley Moore (1804 -1850) married Mary Stewart (1820 – 1877) on July 21, 1841 in Craven County. The relationship, if any, between this Mary Stewart and John Stewart (b. 1809) is also unknown at this time. Wiley and Mary appear in the 1850 Craven census along with three apparent children and a free black, Augustus Moore. The 1850 census lists a young child 4 months of age, named George Moore. Wiley A. Moore (1850-1931) is apparently this child due to a census transposition. Wiley Moore’s tombstone in the Stewart Cemetery reads born 1849, but the family bible of Letha Moore Wetherington, his daughter, states he was born on March 14, 1850 making the younger Wiley’s birthdate coincide with the 4 months of age reported in the 1850 census for George (Wiley) Moore. Wiley’s death certificate in Craven County also gives his birth date of April 14, 1850. Wiley Moore was buried in the John Moore family cemetery in Tuscarora, but the marker has deteriorated. A William Moore also lived in the Tuscarora area in the 1840 Craven census.

The children of Wiley Moore and Mary Stewart were: 13

1. Lucy Moore 1847 – m. Robert Ange
2. Charles Moore 1848-
3. Wiley Moore 1850 – 1931 m. Nancy S. Stewart

Wiley Moore died in 1850 or early 1851 as his widow, Mary Stewart Moore married Josiah Taylor (1832 -) in May 1851 in Craven County. 14 Josiah and Mary Taylor appear in the 1860 Brunswick County, NC census with their children: George, David, and Mary. Also listed in the 1860 census were Mary’s children Lucy, Charles, and William G. “Gus” (Wiley Augustus).

The children of Josiah Taylor and Mary Stewart Moore were: 15

1. George Taylor 1852 -
2. David Cicero Taylor 1855 – m. Eveline -?- and 2nd Alice -?-
3. Mary J. Taylor i859 –
4. Parneta “Puss” Taylor 1861 -

By 1870, Josiah and family had returned to Craven County as they appear in the Tuscarora area in the 1870 census. Also listed in the household were (David) Cicero Taylor, Parneta Taylor, Augustus Moore, Lucy Moore Ange and her husband, Robert Ange. Mary Stewart Taylor died prior to 1877, as Josiah married 2nd, Clara Ann Bratcher Perkins in 1877. 16

Wiley A. Moore (aka Granpa Gus) was born on March 14, 1850. 17 Family speculation suggested Wiley was illegitimate prior to this research as he was reticent in nature and little was known of his early years. Research has uncovered a birth record, the marriage of his parents, and being raised as a stepson by Josiah Taylor.

Wiley A. Moore married Nancy (aka Nannie) Shepard Stewart, the youngest daughter of John Stewart and Beneta Davis Wetherington on October 23, 1879 in Craven County. 18 Nancy Shepard Stewart was born in on January 26, 1859 and died on January 13, 1931. 19 Wiley and Nancy appear in the 1880 Jones County census in the Pollocksville District. 20 By 1900, Wiley and Nancy S. Moore lived in Tuscarora on a farm near the intersection of Dry Monia Road and the railroad. 21

Another Moore family, John Clayton Moore, lived across the railroad from Wiley and Nancy S. Moore. Wiley and Nancy Moore both died in 1931 and are buried in the Stewart Cemetery in Tuscarora. 22 Wiley and family appeared in the 1900, 1910, 1920, and 1930 Craven County censuses in the Tuscarora area.

The relationship between John Moore (1816-1892) and Wiley Moore (1804 – 1850) is not currently known. Both men appear in Tuscarora prior to the Civil War and the families live in close proximity to one another. This researcher speculates John and Wiley were likely related. Another Moore family, Charles Moore (1807) also lived in the Tuscarora area in 1860 near the John Moore farm and this relation is unknown at this time.

John Moore was born in 1816 and died in 1892. John married 1st Phyllis -?- and 2nd, Richelda Taylor, 1827-1887, the daughter of Abraham and Sarah Taylor. John and Richelda are buried in the family cemetery in Tuscarora (Moore Cemetery).

Chapter 19  Lewis Bratcher Family

The Bratcher family has a long history in Craven County and the Tuscarora area. The estate of Roger Bratcher was recorded in Craven County in 1784. An Abbey Bratcher married David White in 1788 in Craven County. Numerous Bratcher family members lived in the Tuscarora area in the period before the Civil War.

The Bratcher family cemetery existed in Tuscarora on Tuscarora-Rhems Road at Tomahawk Branch. The cemetery was relocated to the Gethsemane Church about 1970, but no Bratcher markers or dates survive. Only the infant Stewart gravestones survived the relocation.

On a Civil War era map, the Bratcher home appears near Tuscarora on the west side of the Tuscarora Road. (See map Chapter 25).

Durant Bratcher, born about 1808, appears in the 1840 Craven census in the Tuscarora area. Durant also appears in the estate files of Solomon Wetherington in 1840, purchasing farm implements at the estate auction. Durant Bratcher was buried in the Bratcher cemetery on Tomahawk Branch in Tuscarora but no dates are available.

Reuben Bratcher, a turpentine farmer of Tuscarora, appears in the following newspaper account:

From the Newbern Daily Journal of Commerce, Tuesday, July 23, 1867:

Another Murder. – We are again called upon to record another atrocious murder committed on the person of Reubin Bratcher at Bachelor Creek in this county and almost within site of the steeples of this city. The murder was committed on Saturday last while Mr. Braches [Bratcher] was in the woods chipping turpentine boxes. It is supposed to be the work of . . . . Sturgiss and as the murdered man was one of the most important witnesses against Sturgiss, and as it is not probable he would have been shot for money or valuables at such a distance in the woods while at hard work.

Lewis Bratcher, born about 1808, reportedly married Mary Avery, born about 1807. Lewis and Mary appear in the 1850, 1860 and 1870 Craven census. Lewis occupation listed in the census was wheelwright and blacksmith. Mary Avery Bratcher died in December 1873 in Tuscarora. Bratcher and children are listed in the 1900 Craven Census. Elizabeth W. Bratcher was buried in the Bratcher cemetery in Tuscarora, but no marker or information survived. Harvey T. Chapter 22  Revolutionary and Civil War Wetheringtons

Soldiers of the revolution, Solomon Wetherington and his brother William Wetherington, Sr. served several enlistments. A transcription of their service records follows: 1

SOLOMON Witherington. (Minutes of Craven Co., NC, Superior Court, October Term 1832, pages 132-138.)

On 25 October 1832 Solomon Witherington of Craven County, aged 71 years, made a declaration on oath in open court before Judge Joseph J. DANIEL to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress of 7 June 1832. He declared: "That when about fourteen years of age, he served as a substitute, for John DISMAL, who was drafted by Capt. Menan PATRICK, at Kinston Lenoir County No. Carolina, but at what precise time, this applicant entered the service, he is unable to state, being now advanced in years, and very young when he enlisted. - That they were ordered to rendezvous, at Kinston, and thence under the command of Genl. Will. BRYAN, Col. Will. CASWELL, Capt. John STRINGER, McILVEAN, Lieut Thomas SHUTE, together with Blaney HARPER Ensign, Isler Kilpatrick first sergeant, James COWARD second sergeant, and Elijah JOHNSON, corporal, they marched through No. Carolina and South Carolina, without the occurrence of any affair, worthy of mention, until they re, ached a place, called the white house, on the Savannah river, which divides... South Carolina from Georgia. At that place they despaired a party of soldiers, of the british, on the opposite side, and thereupon immediately fired upon them, they then marched, to Augusta old field, about a mile below the town of Augusta, and lay there one week, until the british evacuated Augusta, whereupon the americans entered the town. After remaining at Augusta, a very short time, we marched from the town of Augusta, to Brier Creek in Georgia where we engaged with the british. The engagement took place, between one and two o'clock, and resulted in the defeat of the [preceding two words lined out] and dispersion of the American forces, our light horse fared very badly and were nearly all destroyed. This applicant in the general dispersion which ensued, fell in with sixteen of the american forces, and they agreed to make James NOBLES, one of the number, Captain of the sixteen. After wandering about in the woods, for sometime, on their way home, they reached the Savannah river, where it was quite broad, and found in the river an old raft of plank, all of the sixteen immediately got upon it, but they were unable to carry it across the stream, this they therefore abandoned, and perceiving an old canoe on the opposite side of the river, they all agreed to give Dick JOHNSON, One of their number, one hundred dollars, to swim across, and bring over the canoe; after some hesitation, he agreed to make the attempt, and pulled off his clothes, and jumped into the stream, but after swimming twenty or thirty yards, he returned to the same bank whence he started and refused to go. All the surrounding country, being alarmed at the victory of the enemy, and our situation, growing more and more hazardous, this applicant, swam across the river, obtained the canoe, and then the whole party gained the opposite bank. after reaching this side of the river, we travelled upon the banks of the same, until we came to, a house called the two sisters, which was occupied by two women, and where there was a ferry. They informed us that the British had just passed, and gave us some hominy, of which we partook very heartily. We then retraced our steps, down the river, and ultimately reached the white house, where we found our baggage, waggons, &c - of which we took possession, no body being then in charge, and remained there three days, - on the third day, the remnant of our light horse, came up. and on the fourth day, our brigade came up. and we marched down to a small place, called Puryburg, where we continued to remain, until our time was out. - Col: William CASWELL here took command of our regiment and under him we marched to Charleston, thence through Georgetown, and Wilmington N. Carolina, to Kinston in No. Carolina, having served five months, which added, to the time consumed in travelling home, made five months, and eighteen days. This applicant never asked for, nor received a discharge, from any person, being at that time very young, fond of the service anxious, to see the world, and ambitious of distinction. About two years after the discharge of this applicant, (when he was sixteen years of age,) at Purrysburg in South Carolina, he was drafted at Kinston No. Ca. as well as this applicant can recollect under the command of Genl. Richard CASWELL, Col. Benjamin AXUM, and Col. Richard CASWELL, he marched to cross creek (now Fayetteville) thence up to Hillsboro, and from the latter place, they took up their line of march, for South Carolina, they crossed the Yadkin river, and near Lynchs creek, were joined by Genl. GATES, Under the general command, of Genl. GATES, they proceeded on to Camden. but before they reached the latter place, they were met by the British, and an engagement took place, which resulted in the complete discomfiture of the Americans. This applicant was not present in the engagement, but was left, a short distance from the battle ground, on the road, quite sick. the first person he saw, after the defeat was, "tory John COX" as he was afterwards called, he informed this applicant of the complete overthrow of the American army, this man was a very valiant soldier, and much attached to the cause of the whigs, but subsequently, became a rank tory. Col. Benjamin AXUM came up and informed this applicant that all was lost, and he must take the best care of himself, that he could, and this applicant accordingly made his escape, and after a long and tedious journey, finally succeeded, in reaching Kinston No. Carolina. Upon this tour of duty he served three months; This applicant never received a discharge, as the troops were completely dispersed, the remnant of them, never was called together afterwards, and this declarant never applied for a discharge. This applicant was engaged, as a substitute, afterwards for Christopher Taylor, to guard the magazine of arms & amunition, which was kept in Kinston, under Capt. Saml. CASWELL, and Genl. William CASWELL, and served three months, he has no date, by which he can fix upon the time, of his service, and never made any endeavor, to preserve any memorandum, or any thing else, by which his memory, might be aided, and refreshed, upon the matter, as he never expected, to receive any compensation, at a future day, for the same, and could not anticipate, any possible advantage, that might arise from it. This declarant next volunteered, in August, 1782, under Genl. LILLINGTON, and marched with Capt. Matthew MOSELY, and Major Will: SHEPARD, from Kinston to intercept Major CRAIG, who at the head of some British forces, was reported to be on his way, from Wilmington, to Newbern No: Ca: The Americans fell in with him at Hargetts, in Jones County, and after a smart brush, he retreated, & came to New Bridge, over Trent river, where our piquet guards, engaged with his lighthorsemen, they again retreated, and, finally succeeded in reaching Newbern, without any further molestation. This applicant then went to Trenton, where, after serving the ten days out, for which they enlisted, they were relieved, and marched back, to Kinston under Major SHEPARD. This applicant never received any formal discharge from this service. This applicant again served as a substitute, for, Nathan Witherington, who was drafted by Capt. Ezeriah Moore, and ordered to rendezvous at Kinston: thence under the command of Capt. Thomas GATLIN, they marched for Wilmington, and whilst on their way, having received the news, that peace was proclaimed, between this and the mother country, they were disbanded and returned home. This declarant has no documentary evidence, by which he can support the facts herin contained, He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity, except the present, and declares that his name is not on the pension roll, of the agency of any state." /s/SOLOMON Witherington [Test. :]EDW PAULS

In answer to the interrogatories Witherington stated he was born "In Lenoir County, N. Ca. near Kinston, on the 4th of October A. D. 1761." His age is recorded "in the family bible, which is now in the possession, of my eldest brother, who is now living in Craven County, N. C." He stated "I was living when called into service, near Kinston in Lenoir County, N. Carolina; I served as a substitute three times, viz: for John DISMAL, Christopher Taylor, and Nath. Witherington, was drafted once and volunteered once."
He recollected "Genl. William BRYAN, Col. Will. CASWELL, Genl. Richard CASWELL, Genl. LILLINGTON, Genl. GATES, and Col. Benj. AXUM." As to receiving a discharge, he replied "I never did, for I never applied for one." Persons who could testify to his veracity and soldierly services were "Richard RICHARDSON, Andrew H. RICHARDSON, Caleb WOOTEN, Joseph Withington, & William Witherington." /s/ SOLOMON Witherington 25 October 1832 [Test. :] EDW. PAULS

"We Richard RICHARDSON, and Caleb WOOTEN, residing in the County of Craven No. Carolina, hereby certify, that we are well acquainted with, Mr. Solomon Witherington, . . . we believe him to be seventy one years of age;..." /s/RICHARD RICHARDSON, CALEB WOOTEN [Test. :] EDW. PAULS

The Court declares their opinion the applicant was a revolutionary soldier and certifies "that it appears, that there is no clergyman, residing in the neighborhood, of the applicant, but that Richard RICHARDSON, Caleb WOOTEN, A. H. RICHARDSON, Will. Witherington and Joseph Witherington,... are residents in the county of Craven, and are credible persons, and that their statements are entitled to credit." J.J. DANIEL J.S.L.E. WILLIAM Witherington. (Minutes of Craven Co., NC, Superior Court, October Term 1832, pages 126-132.)

On 25 October 1832 William Witherington of Craven County, aged 73 years, made a declaration on oath in open court before Judge Joseph J. DANIEL, to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress of 7 June 1832. He declared "That at the instigation of General CASWELL, who was his neighbor, in the forepart of the year, 1776, he volunteered in Capt. Thomas Williams company, and repaired to Kinston, within five miles of which place, he resided, and under General CASWELL, they marched through Duplin, and Sampson Counties, on to Cross Creek, now Fayetteville, and thence to, Moores Creek, where General CASWELL, had an engagement, with the Tories, under, McLEOD, McDaniel and Campbell, the Tories were easily routed, as the engagement lasted, only about ten minutes, This applicant was not in the engagement, having been sent, off with others by General CASWELL, on a scouting party, under Lieut. Barwell Mourning, and was at the time of the engagement, about a mile and a half distant, In this expedition, Captain Jesse Cobb of Lenoir County commanded, a company of minute men, after the affair of Moore’s Creek they returned, homewards, and after the necessary and usual delays, reached Kinston, and was there discharged, This applicant residing near Genl. CASWELL, never received a formal discharge, - never having applied for it. This applicant served in this town, in the militia, between two and three months. A short time after the discharge of this applicant, he volunteered, under Genl. CASWELL, at Kinston and marched in the company of Capt. Thomas Williams, for the town of Wilmington N. Ca. and was stationed there three months. Col. Jarvis was the Colonel of one of the regiments, Richard CASWELL Jr. was colonel to this applicants regiment, and Burwell Morning, lieutenant, Jesse COBB of Lenoir, was Captain of one of the companies, whilst stationed at Wilmington, the Independence of the states was declared by Congress, on July 4th 1776, and six weeks after that time, we broke up at Wilmington, and marched home for Kinston, where this applicant was discharged by Genl. CASWELL, he retained his discharge, until some time after peace was declared, but not thinking that it would ever be of any value to him, he did not preserve it, and it is now lost. This applicant served in this tour three months. In February 1777, this applicant again volunteered, under Captain Samuel CASWELL, and was placed under the general command of Genl. William CASWELL, to guard the magazine of arms, and ammunition, in Kinston No. Carolina which was collected there for the use of the troops, there were in all about sixty men, upon this duty, in which we served three months, and this applicant received his discharge, at the end of that time, from Genl. William CASWELL, but has lost the same,... In April 1777, this applicant again served, as a substitute for John CREECH, who was drafted, by Capt. Menan PATRICK, in Kinston, and was in Captain Thomas PASTEUR's company; under Genl. SUMNER, Col. Richard CASWELL, and Captain PASTEUR, they marched from Kinston, up through Johnston and Wake counties, Salisbury and Charlotte, into South Carolina. In Charlotte, and Salisbury, the light horse belonging to this applicant's regiment, and the British light horse, had several engagements, but, they resulted in nothing of a decisive character, In this campaign we never met the enemy, and it was therefore not characterized by, any active operations, and our time of service being about to expire, we began to retrace our steps back through No. Carolina. When we reached the Yadkin River, this applicant was discharged, by Genl. SUMNER, but he has lost the same,... One KNIGHT was adjutant, and JOHNSON Captain, in some of the companies, who were, associated with this applicant, in this campaign. Jesse BRYAN was Lieut. in this applicants company, and Ephraim PRYOR, Ensign. In this campaign this applicant served, in all five months and eleven days. In August 1782, this applicant again volunteered under General LILLINGTON, in Kinston and marched under his command, and that of Capt. Matthew MOSELY, to intercept Major CRAIG, a british officer who was then on his way, from the South to Newbern. They met him at Harget's, in Jones County, and had a, short engagement, the British retreated to New Bridge over Trent River, and our Piquet guards engaged with the light horse belonging to the British, who again retreated, and made good their way to Newbern. The Americans, immediately after their last engagement, came on to Trenton in Jones County, where we remained eight days, and marched thence, under Major William SHEPARD, to Kinston, having agreed to serve only ten days, for the special purpose of, opposing Major CRAIG, in his march to Newbern. This applicant has no documentary evidence, to substantiate the facts, herein set forth." His name is not on the pension roll of any state. /s/WILL. Witherington [Test:.] EDW. PAULS

Richard RICHARDSON and Caleb WOOTEN of Craven County certify their acquaintance with William Witherington. /s/RICHARD RICHARDSON, CALEB WOOTEN [Test. :] EDW. PAULS

Witherington answered the interrogatories. He was born "In Lenoir County, N. Carolina, about five miles from Kinston, on the 16th day of July A. D. 1759." His age is recorded "in our old family bible, which I have in my possession at home." He stated "When called into service, I lived in the county now called Lenoir, about five miles from Kinston and there I continued to reside, until within the last thirty years, when I removed into the county of Craven where I have ever since lived, and continue to reside .... Chapter 23  The Meeting House and Gethsemane Church

The Bethel, NC conference in 1829 at Bay River of Free Will Baptist Church ministers lists several churches in Craven County, among them, a church on Bachelor Creek. It was not identified as the Liberty Meeting House, however there were no other churches known to the Bachelor Creek area.

A conference in Martin County in 1853 lists ministers, among them Jeremiah Heath, Abram Taylor, and R. A. Wetherington. In 1856, the conference minutes indicate all ministers credentials passed examination except for R. A. Wetherington, a controversial minister for his day. Jeremiah Heath lived in the Core Creek area, and Abram Taylor, lived in Tuscarora. R. A. Wetherington’s lineage and homeplace is unknown.

A conference in 1860 at Post Oak, Craven County decided R. A. Wetherington’s credentials would be examined by committee and he subsequently refused to submit to the committee during the 1861 convention at Gum Swamp in Pitt Co.

A Confederate military map from the Civil War places several homes in the Tuscarora area and the Liberty Meeting House. During the Civil War, an 1864 Baptist conference meeting at Elm Grove in Pitt County names the Liberty (Meeting) church at Tuscarora, but no delegates from the church attended the conference due to the war.

Tradition has the old Liberty Meeting House located on or beside the site of present day Gethsemane cemetery. The building was used by both Methodists and Baptists congregations until the Methodists erected a church in Tuscarora about 1890.

In 1887, Oliver and Nannie Wetherington conveyed a tract to the Methodist church. An article from the New Bern Weekly Journal in March 1887 states that Rev. D. W. Porter, Methodist minister, preaches at Liberty Church once a month. By the 1960s the small Tuscarora congregation had dwindled and also due to better transporation, members moved to other, larger churches in Craven County. Located on the Tuscarora- Rhems road, the church has been incorporated into a residence.

The Tuscarora Methodist Church
With the construction of the Methodist Church in the late 1880s, the Liberty Meeting House became a domain of the Free Will Baptists.

In 1884, the New Bern Weekly Journal reveals: 3

The Free Will Baptists held their quarterly meeting at Liberty last Saturday and Sunday. Elder Slaughter was present and conducted the meeting.

In 1885, the New Bern Weekly Journal reveals: 4

There is a small Sunday school here (Tuscarora), twas visited by our energetic Disciple friend, Dr. Harper, on last Sunday, who of course imparted a great deal of spirit an life in the exercises. Though it is just beginning, we have great hopes of its increase and prosperity. (Unknown religious denomination).

Also in 1887, Mrs. Bettie Charlton was teaching public school at the Liberty schoolhouse in Tuscarora. 5 This building was built in 1884 and also called Liberty.6

In 1890, Thomas E. and Mary Brinkley Outlaw (Thomas was a grandson of Solomon Wetherington 1761-1840) conveyed a tract of land in Tuscarora to William Tull Civils, Trustee for the Free Will Baptist church.7 The fate of the old Liberty building is unknown. Tradition has it was moved and incorporated in the present day Gethsemane church building, but the actual facts have not been determined.

The deed of 1890 is considered the starting date of the Gethsemane Free Will Baptist Church. Apparently the Baptist membership of the Liberty church rolled over in the new Gethsemane church. No records or membership roll of the Liberty church are known to exist.

The earliest church records for the Gethsemane church are Sunday school rolls from the 1890s, where the lists abound with Wetheringtons and their relations.

The first church adult membership list is dated 1916, but the list appears to have been annotated afterwards with death dates, etc., so the list likely represents the period around 1916 and not an enrollment at a specific date but an ongoing listing.

Chapter 24 The Cemeteries of Tuscarora

Several various compilations of cemetery records in Craven County exist. This chapter examines the cemeteries in Tuscarora in more detail with annotations on the deceased.

A. The Solomon Wetherington Cemetery

Located in the woods behind the Solomon Wetherington, Jr. home, the earliest known interment is Mary Moore Wetherington of 1822. A deed of 1811 mentions a graveyard and a deed of 1834 mentions the “old graveyard”. Interments are the mostly the family of Solomon Wetherington, Jr, his parents, and the John Herring Wetherington family. The last interment was Edward Duffy Wetherington in 1942, at this time the road was so overgrown a mule cart was enlisted to move the casket to the cemetery. One curious note is the various spellings of the name Wetherington. The cemetery, known to Nannie B. Wetherington as a child in the 1920s, had many old wooden markers that have perished.

B. The Stewart Cemetery

Located off Tuscarora Rhems Road south of the US 70 Bypass, the cemetery is named for the Stewart family. John Stewart married Beneta Davis Wetherington, the daughter of Jesse Wetherington and granddaughter of Solomon Wetherington in 1839. Besides the Stewart family many other relations and Tuscarora residents were buried in the cemetery between 1876-1939. Long neglected, many of the old wooden markers had deteriorated prior to the beginning of maintenance by the Gethseman Free Will Baptist church. The oldest known interment is William Riley Stewart in 1876 and the latest is W. A. Adams in 1939.

C. The Gethsemane Church Cemetery

Located on the Tuscarora Rhems Road at the Gethsemane FWB Church, the cemetery is also the site of the Liberty Meeting House, an ante-bellum church meeting house. The cemetery is maintained by the Gethsemane church, its earliest known interment was Rebecca Wetherington Taylor 1820 - 1898, daughter of Jeremiah Wetherington.

When the US 70 bypass was built in the 1970s, the Bratcher Cemetery was incorporated in the Gethsemane church cemetery. The relocated graves were not marked except for two Stewart infant gravesites. The unmarked relocated graves are listed in the Bratcher Cemetery listing.

Chapter 25  A View of Tuscarora

The North Carolina Gazetteer lists Tuscarora as being settled circa 1825 and named for the Indians who formerly lived in the area. Craven County deeds name several families living in the area prior to 1800. Some of the names found on deeds from the 1790s are Benejah Bogey, Abraham Taylor, Solomon Wetherington, Andrew H. Richardson, David Hudler, James Mackelroy, and Francis Moore.

The Bogeys lived on the southernmost prong of Bachelor Creek near SR 1224, Tuscarora Rhems Road. The Bogey home was known as the Red House during the Civil War, and appears in Union army records. The home is long vanished but the Bogey-Richardson cemetery remains. Marcus Cicero Bogey 1798 – 1868, buried in the family plot there, was a wealthy farmer and the executor of Susanna Davis Wetherington’s estate in 1840.

Abraham Taylor, Jr. received a grant in 1785 for 640 acres on Bachelor Creek. Numerous Taylors lived in Tuscarora in the early 1800’s and were connected to the Wetheringtons by several marriages.

Ancestors of the Davis family of the Asbury area lived in Tuscarora in the early 1800s. Members of Another prominent Craven family, Andrew, Richard, and John H. Richardson also had sizeable land holdings there.

One family story relates the name of Bachelor Creek to early, unmarried Wetherington brothers, however the name is most likely of Swiss Palatine origin, and an alternate spelling, Batchelder’s Creek, also appears in early records. The name Bachelor Creek appears on the Moseley map of 1733, at least 50 years before the Wetheringtons arrived in the Tuscarora area of Craven County.

The name Tuscarora does not appear in early deeds but many watercourse names still identifiable are named. The most often used references are Bachelor Creek, Deep Branch, Hudler’s Pond, Tomahawk Branch, Beaverdam Branch, and Limbo Branch. The name Rollover Creek does not appear until the Civil War, prior to the 1860’s it was called Limbo Branch. The term Rollover first appears to have been used for an area along a section of Limbo Branch. The name Rollover Creek appears to come into use as the prevalent name for the watercourse and area after the Civil War.

Tomahawk Branch was a prong of Bachelor Creek north of the Liberty Meeting House (Gethsemane church) and south of the Atlantic and NC railroad. The construction of the US 70 highway by-pass in the 1970s all but obliterated the old watercourse.
A Confederate Civil War map (c. 1862-1864) shows the Clarks and Tuscarora area. Locations include Solomon Wetherington, Jr., Marcus C. Bogey, Bratcher, Shute, and others. (Excerpt from a larger map of the county drawn by Lt. Col. Guion from memory, from the Perkins Library Collection, Duke University)

The Tuscarora area began to prosper with the advent of the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad during the late 1850s. A depot was built in Tuscarora, and with the new transportation mode available, the area became a timber resource and the Richardsions operated a lumber business.

Many of the land holders made a living from the naval stores business, turpentine resin was collected from the pines, tar kiln beds, aka “tarkle beds”, were used to process pitch, and others earned a living as a cooper, producing barrels for turpentine shipment.

In addition to the small landowners, others such as Solomon Wetherington, Jr. had numerous enterprises. Solomon raised several crops, held 18 slaves, and also was a producer of turpentine. In 1850, Solomon owned 2,000 acres and produced 1500 barrels of turpentine with 9 laborers earning an average wage of 90 dollars a month.\(^2\)

During the Civil War and during early Reconstruction, the area was a lawless place. No civil authority existed and either side seized whatever valuables or commodities they could forage from the local residents. An account from 1867 exists where Solomon Wetherington, Jr. stood down a gang of Negro pillagers. On the other hand, the same paper lists an account of the murder of Reubin Bratcher while tending his turpentine boxes in the pinewoods.

From the New Bern Journal of Commerce, July 23, 1867:

We learn by a passenger on the train last evening that still another Robbery has been perpetrated in the region of Tuscarora, about 10 miles from the city. We did not learn the name of the party robbed, but hear that they took everything he had. This was night before last. On yesterday in broad daylight, four negroes went to the residence of Mr. Solomon Wetherington near Tuscarora, but Mr. Wetherington not showing any fear they departed. It was thought to be the party that did the robbing the night before.\(^3\)

Another Murder – We are again called upon to record another atrocious murder committed on the person of Reubin Bratcher at Bachelor Creek in this county and almost within site of the steeples of this city. The murder was committed on Saturday last while Mr. Braches [Bratcher] was in the woods chipping turpentine boxes. It is supposed to be the work of . . . . Sturgiss and as the murdered man was one of the most important witnesses against Sturgiss, and as it is not probable he would have been shot for money or valuables at such a distance in the woods while at hard work.\(^4\)

Law and order gradually returned and in 1882 a post office was established by the railroad. A listing of the post masters for Tuscarora, NC:\(^5\)

3. Tuscarora Post Office – was located in the northwest corner of the railroad and Drymonia Road. There were several postmasters, Thomas Dillion served thirty years, from 1900 to 1931 and his wife, Hattie Smith Dillon, succeeded him until the post office was discontinued in 1938.

4. Atlantic & NC Railroad Depot - was located in the northeast corner of the railroad and Drymonia Road.

5. Oliver Wetherington Store – was located in the southeast corner of the railroad and Drymonia Road.

6. William Allen Adams House - located south of the railroad, property was in this area was acquired by W. A. Adams from Amos Wetherington in 1885. The date of the structure is unknown.¹

7. William and Mariam Cook Home – located south of the railroad the house was later purchased by Levi Norris.

8. Tuscarora Methodist Church – Originally the Baptists and Methodists shared the use of the Liberty Meeting House, a new Methodist structure was built about 1890 on this site, the church became inactive in the 1960-70s. It has been converted into a private residence.

9. Noah Wetherington – the home was located on the west side of the present US 70 bypass and was relocated during the highway construction. Noah’s son, Elbert Ray Wetherington operated the farm in the 1930’s and sold it to his brother-in-law J. Milton Speight. It remained in the Speight family until the property was acquired by the highway right-of-way. Levi Ricks purchased the house and relocated the structure to Clarks, NC.

10. Bratcher Cemetery – was located on the northeast side of the current US 70 highway interchange. The highway reconstruction removed the known graves to the Gethsemane Church cemetery. A listing of the graves removed from the site exist, only two infant grave markers survived the relocation.

11. Tuscarora School – was located on the southwest side of the current US 70 highway interchange. The wooden frame L-shaped structure contained was 2-3 schoolrooms and was built about 1881.

14. Jackson Home – located adjacent to the Gethsemane Church, the Jackson family once occupied this wooden structure.

15. Joyner Home – was located on the now grownover road behind the Stewart Cemetery.

16. Gethsemane Free Will Baptist Church – established in 1890, is a wooden frame structure with additions. Reportedly the Liberty Meeting House, was moved from the southwest corner of the current intersection to the church’s present northeast corner location. One tradition states the current church incorporated the older building into its structure.

17. Herman E. Stewart Home – located on the south side of Gethsemane Church Road, the home was built about 1910-1925.

18. Gethsemane Cemetery – Also referred to as the Wetherington cemetery, this cemetery has been known as the Gethsemane Church cemetery in more recent years. Once the site of the old Liberty Meeting House, the oldest known interment is Rebekkah (Wetherington) Taylor 1820 – 1898.

19. Harvey Griffin Home – was located in the northwest corner of the Gethsemane FWB Church intersection.

26. Solomon Wetherington Cemetery – Also known as the Griffin Cemetery, the cemetery is on a trail behind the horse barn on the old homestead. The oldest known interment is Solomon Wetherington 1761 – 1840. Many wooden markers known to have existed in the 1920-30s have deteriorated completely. Old Wetherington deeds also refer to the cemetery in 1820 and in the 1840’s as the old cemetery. The oldest known interment is Mary Moore, 1st wife of Solomon Wetherington, died 1822.

Chapter 26  A History of Clarks

The community of Clarks in the 8th Township derives its name from Henry J. B. Clark’s brickyard, the North State Brick Company, located in the area prior to the Civil War. The brickyard was listed in the 1860 census and was located on the Guion map of 1864. The startup of this brickyard coincided with the completion of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad from Beaufort to Goldsboro, NC about 1858. Prior to the railroad there would have been no effective transportation for the community’s products.

During the Civil War, Union forces built earthwork fortifications on the east side of Bachelor Creek, on both sides of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad. The Clark’s brickyard area was used a depot for supplies for the fortifications and the large Yankee camp between the creek and the brickyard on the north side of the railroad.¹

One of the oldest homes in the area was the John Humphrey home located near the brickyard, purchased by John Humphrey in 1878 from E. R. Stanley, the home originally a log structure. The house built prior to the Civil War, burned in 1966. Most of the extant structures in the community date to about 1880-1910.²

Never a large community, the 1893 North Carolina directory lists a population of 25. About 1910-20, there were three merchants in the community, George R. Stewart’s general store and post office, the Joseph E. Register store (farm equipment) and the Abner Wetherington store (aka Craven Supply Co, farm equipment).

In 1883 John Humphrey was a Justice of the Peace, in 1893, a North Carolina directory lists George Thomas Eubanks as a magistrate in the 8th township. Amos T. Wetherington was also a magistrate in the 8th township.

John Humphrey was appointed postmaster for Clarks in 1892, but does not appear to have served according to postal records.³ At one time the Post Office in Clarks was in the George R. Stewart store, later it was located in the George and Mattie Moore Stevenson home (formerly the Joseph E. Register Store) until the service was discontinued in 1962. The post masters for Clarks were:⁴

The railroad serviced Clarks via a siding, but there was not a regular depot in Clarks, the freight depot for the area being Tuscarora. There was regular rail service for Clarks. The timetable at the right appeared the October 1897 New Bern Weekly Journal.5

Clarks was involved in brickmaking from the 1850s until the late 1940s. First was Henry J. B. Clark’s brickyard, there was also the Jones and Abbott brickyard, the Enterprise Brick and Tile Manufacturing Company, the Clark Brick and Tile Company, and the Carolina Brick Company that operated in the area.

Also, at least two dairy farms were in the area in the early 1900s. John Humphrey and Kelley McKeel operated dairy farms in the community. John W. Humphrey took over the dairy operation from his father and later moved his dairy operation to the Beaufort, NC area.

The Abbott and Jones Brickyard operated about 1905 and became the Carolina Brick Company, and relocated to Hyman’s Siding. The Clarks Lumber Company operated about 1910, one of the several lumber camps operating in the area of Clarks. A lumber milling business also operated in Clarks in 1911 but the location of the old mill is unknown.

An advertisement in the 1911 New Bern Weekly Journal by James M. Register lists a millwork plant for sale in the upcoming town of Clarks. The ad also lists J. M. Register home for sale on a three-acre lot with a young orchard of fruit trees. This property may have been item 9 on the map, the home of Lehman and Florence Wetherington. The following map locates some of the homes and businesses of Clarks about 1920.

1. The Clarks United Methodist Church was established in 1905. Originally a one-store wooden structure, the original church was replaced in the 1970s. The old building was purchased by William G. Humphrey and moved to the Jay Lee Humphrey, Sr. homeplace where it stands in 2005.

2. The John and Delila Stewart home, now demolished was a wooden structure. In the late 1930s, Jay Lee and Nannie Humphrey lived in this house.

3. The George R. Stewart General Store. The store, once located between the Stewart home and the road, was relocated to the west side of the house. From 1910 to 1940 the local post office operated out of the store.

4. The George R. Stewart home still stands in its original location, a two-story frame home build in 1888.
5. A two-story house, facing the railroad, was the home of John W. Humphrey and later a Mr. Terry. The home was demolished in the 1960s.\textsuperscript{10}

6. Clark Brick and Tile Company Office was a one-story brick building facing the railroad. The company was incorporated in 1911. Use was discontinued during the early 1930s and the building was demolished about 1967 when the city of New Bern placed a water pipeline through the property.

7. Amos T. Wetherington build a two-story home near the Abner Wetherington store (his uncle). A successful local businessman, the large home was also known as the Wetherington Hotel for the family’s hospitality.\textsuperscript{11}

8. Abner B. Wetherington Store. Built as the Craven Supply Company about 1910 by Abner Wetherington, the two-story brick store was operated by Lehman Wetherington (son of Abner). After Lehman’s death the store was sold to Howard Wethington and remains in the Wethington family as of 2002.

9. Lehman Wetherington Home. Built in 1888 and later owned by Lehman and Florence Wetherington, the two-story frame home still stands in 2002 and is currently owned by Ben Pitts, Jr.\textsuperscript{12} County tax records name the property “Eubanks”.

10. Abner Roy and Lorena Wetherington Home. A two-story frame house with several outbuildings. Sold and abandoned after the death of Rena Wetherington in the early 1980s, these abandoned buildings are now part of the Craven County Industrial Park. The John W. Humphrey family also lived in this home during about 1910-1920. County tax records refer to the property as “Humphrey Land”.

11. Joseph Register Store. Built by Joseph Register in 1880, the two story brick store was converted into a home. Mattie Moore Stevenson was postmistress 1941-1962 and a portion of the home was used for the local post office until 1962. Currently the home of Charlotte Mallard Stevenson, daughter-in-law of Mattie since 1944.

13. Clarks School. A brick schoolhouse, unusual for the county, was converted to a home in the 1930s. It was demolished in the 1970s. The local brick used for the school’s construction was salvaged and used for a new home built on the site by Mike Stevenson in the 1970s.

14. Charles M. Pittman Home. Built in 1916 for Charles and Annie Pittman. The Pittmans lived in the home until the 1930s. Ben Pitts, Jr. later owned the home and the house was occupied until the 1970s by the Pitts family.16

15. Jay Lee Humphrey, Sr. Home. Built prior to the Civil War as a log structure, siding and several additions were added over the years. Purchased by John Humphrey in 1878, the home was later occupied by his son, Jay Lee Humphrey. Jay Lee Humphrey and family lived in the home until his death in 1964. The house burned in 1966 and the property was later used as pasture.

16. Hannah Chapman Home. Located on property known as “Woodruff Land”. The house and property was owned by Jay Lee Humphrey, Sr. and a small house on the site was rented to Hannah Chapman in 1920, the long-time black cook for Humphrey family. The house was demolished at a later unknown date.17

17. George Eubanks Store. A general store was once at this site. Little else is known about the property.18

18. Enterprise Brick and Tile Manufacturing Company. Owned by George T. Eubanks, this brickyard is listed in operation in 1904 – 1918. With the death of John W. Stewart, agent and Treasurer, advertisements for the company disappear from local papers and business directories. The operation likely ceased about 1919.19

19. George Thomas Eubanks Home. This two story frame home, build circa 1917, was the home of George T. Eubanks and family until his death in 1938. The home was later purchased by Charles Prevost and the home remains in the Prevost family in 2002.20

Occupied by John Humphrey until his death in 1917 and later the property was owned by his daughter, Clara Humphrey Foscue, until the late 1970s when it was acquired by William G. Humphrey. The home was partially restored in the 1970s, however it was destroyed by fire in the 1980s.
